Record Road Bill Near OK In Congress

Measure Is Expected To Go To President By Early Next Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $32.9 billion highway construction bill, a record-breaking peacetime government spending measure, neared the stage of final congressional action today.

Two sets of Senate-House conferees arranged to meet on the big bill amid indications it might be sent to President Eisenhower early next week.

The conferees working on construction features of the bill virtually finished their work late yesterday, but scheduled a final session for today to consider some minor language revisions.

Meanwhile, the conferees working on tax features of the legislation arranged their first session. Sen. Byrd (D-Va), heading the Senate group, said in advance he did not anticipate difficulty.

The House voted for $14.8 billion of additional taxes over 16 years to help finance the big roadbuilding program. The Senate cut $300 million from this figure by easing special levy on heavy trucks.

* * *

THE CONFEREES arrived at the $32.9 billion figure, lower than those used by either the House or the Senate, by limiting to three years the bill's application to primary, secondary (farm to market) and urban road programs.

The Senate's $37 billion program had projected these for five years. The House, in counting $51 billion, had estimated a 13-year program.

But the federal money available for these three systems would be increased over the present $700 million a year. The allotments would total $825 million in fiscal 1957, $850 million in 1958, and $875 million in 1959.

Presumably future Congresses would continue them at the $875 million level or higher. These federal funds are matched 50-50 by the states.

The compromise bill includes $47½ million for the interstate system, 90 per cent of it federal money. This is the key feature of the bill; it envisages a network of superhighways extending into every state.

Kentuckian Shuns Post As U.S. Senator

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—A Democratic appointee to the U. S. Senate has declined the post and the Republican party has delayed selection of a senatorial nominee for Kentucky's November election.

Joseph J. Leary, 49-year-old Democratic leader, was appointed to the Senate Monday by Gov. A. B. Chandler. In announcing his decision, Leary said yesterday that "a sincere desire to bring peace to the ranks of the Democratic party in Kentucky" had led him to consider the senatorship.

Leary, who has served as a speech writer and adviser to both Chandler and Sen. Earle C. Clements, said he was convinced, under the circumstances which now exist, that he couldn't accomplish his peace objective.

Kentucky's Democratic party is split between two factions, one headed by Chandler and the other by Clements and former Gov. Lawrence Wetherby. The Democratic State Central Committee Tuesday named Wetherby as the party's nominee for the unexpired term of the late Sen. Alben W. Barkley in the November election. The committee is controlled by forces friendly to Clements.

Chandler said he would try to fill Barkley's seat "in a reasonable time."

Bigger, Better Fairs Due In '56

COLUMBUS (AP) — Administrators of most of Ohio's 96 county and independent fairs predict bigger and better expositions await Ohio fairgoers this season. The prediction came as administrators met here yesterday at the annual mid-summer conference of the Ohio State Fair Managers Assn.

Eight committees to discuss various fair problems were named by Charles J. Betsch of Chillicothe, association president.

Red Probers Eye Famed Playwright

WASHINGTON (AP) —Playwright Arthur Miller, who says he is to be Marilyn Monroe's next husband, was undergoing examination today by the House Commmttee on UnAmerican Activities.

During a break in the questioning, Miller said he and the film star would be wed before July 13. He explained that he had been too busy recently to fix an exact date with Miss Monroe, but "I hope to settle it right soon."

He told the committee today "I was never under Communist party discipline. As for contributing to front groups I wouldn't deny that—I'm here to tell you the truth."

Miller said he does not recall most of the incidents about which he was questioned, but added: "I would not deny it."

"I would like to say I did sign a lot of things in those days," Miller said, but went on:

"At the present time I would not be doing it, that's all."

He said he did things in 1947 because "this suited the mood I was in." He said in those days he was not in an "investigating mood."

Miller also said "I would not now support a cause dominated by Communists."

Accusations concerning Miller's political activities have shadowed him for years.

A tall, lanky man of 40, Miller became prominent in 1944 when his play, "All My Sons" was a hit of the Broadway season and won the New York drama critics award as the best of the year.

Four years later his "Death of a Salesman" took both the Drama Critics and Pulitzer prizes, and in 1952 "The Crucibel" received another theatrical trophy, the Antoinette Perry award.

* * *

SEVERAL YEARS ago the other part of Miller's headline career began. A private organization which studies the backgrounds of individuals in the entertainment profession, Aware, Inc., listed him as allegedly having belonged at some time to several organizations listed by the U. S. attorney general as subversive.

In 1954 the State Department rejected Miller's request for a passport to Beglium (to see a production of one of his plays) under regulations denying passports to persons believed to be supporting the Communist movement, whether or not they had belonged to the Communist party.

Last year, the New York City Youth Board, a semiofficial city agency, rejected plans to make a movie about juvenile delinquents after several veterans organizations protested because Miller had written the script outline.

Miller, who previously has never been called by any official investigating agency, issued a sharply worded statement when the movie was called off.

"Now let us see whether fanaticism can do what it could never do in the history of the world," Miller said. "Let it perform a creative act, let it take its club in hand and write what it has just destroyed."

Miller was born in New York City, Oct. 17, 1915, son of a women's clothing manufacturer. His aim was quickly focused on the stage. At the University of Michigan he majored in English and playwriting, then got his professional start in 1939 with the Federal Theatre Project.

U. S., France Split On Red Relations

WASHINGTON (AP) — A French-American split appeared evident today over the problem of how to deal with Russia despite a round of diplomatic talks between Foreign Minister Christian Pineau and Secretary of State Dulles.

Pineau arranged to leave for New York by plane today en route home after apparently failing to convince Dulles the West should adopt a more daring trade and cultural contact policy toward Russia.

Five and possibly six differences cropped up during the Dulles-Pieau talks, although top American officials sought to minimize them as the kind of differences that were to be expected among free peoples.

The officials stressed Pineau and Dulles were agreed on the over-all objective, that of encouraging development of a peace-loving Russia. The Dulles-Pineau differences that were disclosed were over how best to achieve this.

Despite this on-the-record optimism, many top American officials were known to be concerned lest Pineau's ideas win wide acceptance among other Western countries at a time when Moscow appears to be trying to drive a wedge into Allied unity.

* * *

THE CLASHING Dulles-Pineau views, as they showed up in Pineau's windup speech yesterday and resumes of their talks provided by informed officials, appeared to cover these main points:

EAST-WEST CONTACTS — Pineau urged big scale economic and cultural exchanges with the Soviet bloc. Dulles opposed this, insisting such contacts be on a "selective basis" to prevent Soviet agents from flooding into newly independent and backward countries where they would stir up trouble.

* * *

TRADE — Pineau appealed for easing of trade restrictions on shipments to Eestern Europe and Communist China. France would like to sell television equipment and the new "Caravelle" jet transport to the Soviets. Dulles agreed only to let experts study items individually.

* * *

FOREIGN AID — Dulles turned a cold shoulder to Pineau's idea that Western nations, including the United States, agree to distribute part of their economic aid through the U.N. instead of directly.

* * *

RUSSIAN POLICY—the two disagreed on the significance of policy changes inside Russia since party chief Nikita Khrushchev demolished the Stalin legend. Pineau took the view many of the more liberal changes, particularly in the economic field, were "absolutely irreversible." Dulles said it was too early to judge their significance and that a harsher Soviet policy could be substituted.

GERMANY—Dulles agreed with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer that Russia must agree to unite Germany to prove the sincerity of its new-look policies. Pineau said it was an "exaggeration," to believe nothing could be done to improve East-West relations until the German problem is settled.

* * *

MIDDLE EAST ARMS—Pineau sought unsuccessfully to persuade Dulles to agree that arms provided Israel should be made available by Britain, France and the U. S. jointly. At present, France is supplying arms, including jet planes virtually alone, bringing down the wrath of the Arab world.

Lausche Meeting With Dem Chiefs

COLUMBUS (AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche met today with Democratic leaders to plan Ohio's part in the national convention here his name will be placed in nomination for President.

Lausche is Ohio's "favorite son" candidate of 54 of the 58 Buckeye delegates to the convention opening Aug. 13 in Chicago.

Lausche said conferees would set a date for a meeting of Ohio delegates before July 15 to make convention plans.

FBI Gets Warrant In Ohio Kidnaping

ALLIANCE (AP)—The FBI today obtained a fugitive warrant against a woman accused of kidnaping a 3-year-old boy from his crib here Tuesday.

The woman was identified as Bessie Wright Johnson, 34, common law wife of Lester Johnson, 32, a scrap yard worker charged with conspiracy to kidnap.

Agents quoted Johnson as saying he took Mrs. Johnson and the infant son of Mrs. Anna Lee Daniel to Canton where they got aboard a Chicago-bound train.

Lancaster Plagued By Another Big Fire

LANCASTER (AP)—A fire of undetermined origin yesterday damaged the front part of a two-story building housing the Snyder Electric Supply Co.

The building, located in this city's business district, is next to one housing the Lancaster Frozen Food Locker Co. and Crystal Ice Co., which was partially destroyed by a blaze last week.

Damage from that fire was estimated at $200,000. In yesterday's blaze, unofficial estimates of damage ranged between $50,000 and $100,000.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has agreed to sell Autralia 1,100 pounds and France 88 pounds of U235 to fuel atomic power plants.

East Germany Claims 19,064 Prisoners Free

Woman Justice Chief Under New Fire For Directing Prosecution

BERLIN (AP) — East Germany's Communist rulers announced today they have freed 19,064 prisoners most of them held for political crimes. At the same time the Reds opened a new and violent attack on the woman who put many of the prisoners behind bars, "Red Hilde" Benjamin.

The blast at 54-year-old Mrs. Benjamin, the grim-faced, heavy-set minister of justice, was the strongest so far from within the party. It could foreshadow a purge of the top women in the East German government.

Mrs. Benjamin and prosecutor Gen. Ernest Melsheimer were accused of unjustified arrests, illegal activity against the people and too ruthless administration of justice.

Mrs. Benjamin first came under attack last March at the third party conference. Premier Otto Grotewohl accused her justice ministry of illegal activity and ordered it to "safeguard the rights of citizens" through closer control over the courts.

The Red regime said it had freed so many prisoners in recent months as a demonstration of its strength and its will to reunify divided Germany.

* * *

THE ATTACK on the prosecution and administration of justice in East Germany followed a pattern set by the Kremlin after the exposure of Stalin terrorism.

The special commission said Mrs. Benjamin and Melsheimer had "let themselves be persuaded by theoreticians alien to life that even a careless violation of a street traffic ordinance by a cyclist, motorist or pedestrian was an expression of increased class fight."

Meanwhile, in Weimar and Magdeburg an undisclosed number of Soviet troops boarded trains for the long ride back to Russia.

The movement was part of the much publicized withdrawal of 35,000 troops from East Germany. The Russians are urging the Western powers to follow suit and trim their forces in West Germany.

The East German government press office said 15,756 of those released were convicted of political crimes, including espionage for the West.

The other 3,308 were Germans sentenced by Soviet military tribunals for war crimes. Imprisoned in Russia since the war, they were turned over to the East Germans during the winter when other Germans held in the Soviet Union were allowed to come home.

Fuel Injection System Lauded

CLEVELAND (AP)—Fuel injection systems for automobiles is "probably the best correction" for dangerous exhaust fumes that afflict big cities, the research vice president of Thompson Products, Inc., told a meeting of engineers here last night.

Arch T. Colwell predicted to the American Society of Mechanical Engineers that fuel injection devices for autos would be available next year.

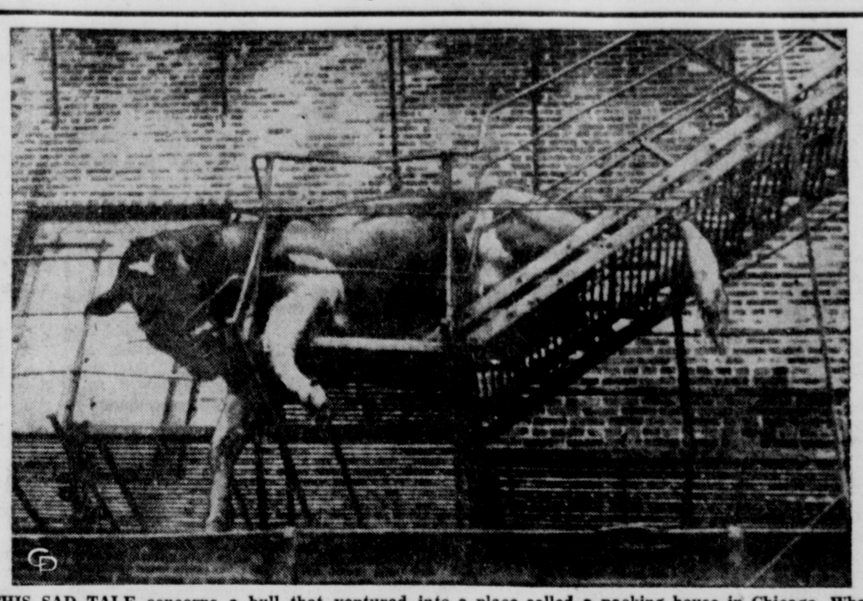
Fuel injection forces fuel directly into each engine cylinder separately, giving it exactly the amount needed and avoiding the expelling of unburned gases which results from use of carburetors.

Grazed Crop Land Gets Soil Bank OK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department announced today that crop land grazed up to June 22 this year may be placed under the new soil bank program.

Heretofore, regulations had banned from inclusion in the soil bank any crop land on which a crop had already been harvested, hay cut or grazed any time this year.

The revised regulation still excludes any land on which crops have been harvested or cut.



THIS SAD TALE concerns a bull that ventured into a place called a packing house in Chicago. When he found out what was in store for him, the otherwise friendly bull broke loose and hoofed it to the fire escape. Unfortunately, fire escapes are built for people and the bull didn't make it all the way down. The police came and shot the bull.

Highway Council Still Cool On Planning No. 2 Turnpike

COLUMBUS (AP) — A spokesman for the Ohio Highway Construction Council says the council will stand by its decision not to act at this time on a Highway Department request for funds to finance plans for the end portions of a proposed north-south turnpike.

Lauren Glosser, executive secretary of the council, made this announcement yesterday after Gov. Frank J. Lausche asked the department to proceed with plans and specifications for construction of the 82-mile northern and 34-mile southern sections as toll free roads.

Highway Director S. O. Linzell last week asked the council for $7¼ million to finance the planning. But the council refused to act until the department said whether use of the money for planning would create fund shortages on construction approved for 1956-57 and whether funds would be left available for emergencies.

A Highway Department spokesman said answers to the council's questions were being prepared.

Gov. Lausche said yesterday the money for the planning would have to come through the council and expressed belief that members would see the wisdom of making it available.

He added that it would be better for Ohio to get highway planning done "too slow than too late."

Originally, the Conneaut to Cincinnati route was proposed throughout as a toll road in which case the Turnpike Commission would handle the planning and construction. But financiers have indicated turnpike bonds would not find a ready market now.

The two sections in question run from the Pennsylvania border near Conneaut to Turnpike No. 1 south of Cleveland and from the northern end of Cincinnati's Millcreek Expressway to Dwyers south of Dayton.

Lausche conferred with turnpike and highway department officials yesterday. Afterward, he released a statement saying, in part:

"With the seemingly assured passage of the federal highway program and the present inability to build Turnpike No. 2 as a toll highway, it is essential that the Highway Department of Ohio get prepared with plans and specifications for those highway projects which it is certain will have to be built in the future."

School Aid Bill Nearing House Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — The way was open today for the House to vote, probably next week, on a four-year federal aid school construction program amounting to $1.6 billion.

The legislation cleared the House Rules Committee yesterday after it had been bottled up there for several months because of the effect it might have on public school segregation.

In a parallel action yesterday, Southern Democrats and Republicans teamed in the House Education Committee to kill a bill calling for the federal government to pay the cost of integrating public schools.

Southerners on the Rules committee have opposed the bill for one reason: Rep. Powell (D-NY) has said he will propose an amendment on the House floor that would forbid federal grants to schools which maintain segregation.

Such an amendment would be bound to touch off a major fight. If the amendment were approved and the bill got to the Senate, its chances would be slim in the face of a southern filibuster.

The legislation calls for federal grants for school construction at the rate of $400 million a year for years. In addition, a revolving fund of not more than $750 million would be set up to buy local school bonds if these couldn't be disposed of in the market at reasonable interest rates.

Washington C.H. Judge Asks Action By State Agency

WASHINGTON C. H. (AP)—Juvenile Judge Robert L. Brubaker says he will take legal action if the Ohio Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction does not take custody of a 14-year-old deaf mute.

Judge Brubaker contemplates filing a mandamus action to compel the department to take charge of the boy whom police here say has a long record of scrapes with the law.

A spokesman for the department said the youth recently was released from the Columbus Juvenile Diagnostic Center. He said he did not know what action the department planned to take, if any.

Sleeping Policemen Not Interrupted

COLUMBUS (AP) — Mayor Walter B. Moling of Whitehall, answering criticism from citizens that Whitehall policemen were not diligent enough, admitted last night he had found two policemen sleeping in their cars in the Columbus suburb.

But both were Columbus officers, Moling declared.

A councilman asked the mayor what he did when he discovered the sleeping policemen.

"I let them sleep," was the mayor's prompt reply.

Probe Started In Air Mishap

Venezuelan Experts Heading For New York

NEW YORK (AP) — Venezuelan government inspectors flew northward today to try to find out why a giant four-engined airliner burst into flames and fell into the sea within sight of New York, carrying 74 persons to their deaths.

The Venezuelan Super Constellation crashed 32 miles off the New Jersey coast early yesterday, beyond the territorial waters of the United States.

It was out of the jurisdiction of the U. S. Civil Aeronautics Board, but the CAB quickly went into action, collecting what evidence it could and standing ready to help its Venezuelan counterpart probe the tragedy.

Officials of the airline, Linea Aeropostal Venezolana, said Venezuelan inspectors flying from Caracas will arrive tonight.

Twenty of those aboard were Americans. Of the Venezuelans, 24 were students in this country, ranging in age from 12 to 20, returning home for summer vacations. Others were French, Italian and Spanish.

The plane left Idlewild Airport at 11:18 p. m. Tuesday. Not far from New York, one of its engines began spinning wildly out of control. The big ship swung around to return to Idlewild.

* * *

ON THE WAY back shepherded by a Coast Guard plane, the pilot, Capt. Luis Plata, prepared to dump 5,000 gallons of explosive gasoline into the ocean, routine precaution.

Suddenly a burst of flame bellowed out under the aircraft.

Someone in one of the airliners in the area shouted a warning: "get your speed about 160 — get your speed about 160 — you're on fire."

But there was no time. Like a falling star, the plane nosed over and dove almost straight down, then struck the ocean.

The first boat to reach the scene messaged back: "Found no survivors. Expect to find none."

Joint Steel Talks Resumed By Union

NEW YORK (AP) — The United Steelworkers Union resumes joint contract talks today with steel's "Big Three" following two days of abortive negotiations on an individual firm basis.

The union threatens to call out 650,000 workers in the basic steel industry if a contract settlement is not reached by June 30—expiration date of the current contract.

The steelworkers broke off negotiations last Sunday with the "Big Three"—U. S. Steel, Bethlehem and Republic—after turning down a "stand pat" offer.

'Mr. PS' Says Merchants Must Be Considered

Local Rumors Had Jubilee Event Set For Full Week

Bob Colville, the man who dreams of Circleville's Pumpkin Show all year through, said today he is firmly opposed to making this year's big Golden Jubilee event longer than the usual four days.

Because the planning for the 1956 show is expected to go all-out in tribute to the fiesta's 50th anniversary, it had been widely rumored that this year's fun would be extended over a full week. Directors of the annual whoopee have yet to decide definitely on the length of this year's show, but it appeared certain they would be heartily in accord with Colville's views.

Colville commented on the length of the 1956 show while revealing he has signed up a top-rank feature—the U. S. Army Field Band—for the program that begins next October 17. The band is the only armed forces band authorized to make concert tours at Uncle Sam's expense, and is in wide demand throughout the nation.

Stressing the hope that the public will not be misled by the erroneous rumors, Colville said:

* * *

"IT JUST wouldn't be fair to the merchants of Circleville to have the show last longer than the usual four days. For many of the merchants, even the four days means a serious reduction in their trade, and we certainly don't want to make the show longer.

"After all, we can—and intend to have—a tremendous show in just four days. Far better to have four really big days than to try for five or six little ones.

"As far as I'm concerned, it would cause no end of trouble if we tried to have the streets shut off longer than we do now."

Colville revealed that a Circleville native, James G. Dunton, who now resides in Washington, D. C., helped to line up the Army Band for this year's show here. Dunton, well known here and a close friend of Colville, is deputy director of special activities in the federal Department of Defense.

In a letter assuring Colville that the band would include the Pumpkin Show in its schedule this Fall, Dunton pointed out that the 100-

DROODLES

"TEXAS ALPHABET SOUP"

Texans have a reputation for doing everything in a Big Way. In New York people think every Texan is an Oil Tycoon and mere millionaires are considered riff-raff. We keep hearing stories about the Texan who was so rich all his land had well-to-well carpeting. This is the same fellow who has 32 Dentists, one for each tooth, and who had his driver's license photograph taken in Cinemascope. Then there was another Texan whose wife wanted a diamond so he bought her the Polo Grounds. These stories may be true but personally I figure there must be a couple of poor families down there who have to drive Buicks and who only own a measly 7 or 8 hundred acres of land.

Chamber Head Cites Gains By Smaller Firms

Paul A. Johnson, president of the Circleville Chamber of Commerce, said it is "surprising as well as encouraging" to note the progress being made by small businesses throughout the nation.

Apparently to correct reports to the contrary, the U. S. Chamber of Commerce from its Washington, D. C., offices has emphasized that the average small business in America is doing well. The national Chamber based its statement on the Federal Trade Commission - Securities and Exchange Commission's quarterly report for manufacturing corporations.

Johnson called attention to figures showing substantial gains for the average small business in 1955 over 1954. His data was confirmed by the national Chamber's report.

It shows that, in the last year, corporations with assets of less than $250,000 have shown the greatest increase in profit margins of all classes. Profit margins for this group were 57.1 per cent higher than 1954 levels.

* * *

THIS COMPARES with an average increase for manufacturing corporations of all sizes of 20 percent. Also, profits per dollar of sales for corporations from $250,000 to $1,000,000 in assets have risen faster than the average for all corporations (though not as fast as the profits of the smallest group).

It is often said that the increasing number of business failures shows that small business is not sharing in the present prosperity, the national Chamber notes. But, while it is true that business failures have risen since 1950, the number of new incorporations in the same period, shows a greater increase—36 percent against 24 percent.

If the pessimistic reports about small business were all true, the Chamber asks, how would it be possible for such large numbers of new business to spring up?

piece outfit also has a chorus group. Thus, it can perform at concerts as well as march in parades.

Colville said he has tentative plans to have the Army musicians give a concert on the Pickaway County courthouse steps, providing the county commissioners will give permission. "I haven't had a chance to ask the commissioners about it yet," Colville said, "but I imagine they'll okay the idea."

COLVILLE said the annual show is in need of a few more larger spaces for such performances. Growth of the exhibition through the years has gradually put space at a premium.

Colville also disclosed he has hopes of announcing another tremendous attraction for this year's Golden Jubilee Pumpkin Show, which has carried Circleville's name around the globe. He said he will seek to sign up the Mid-Western Hayride dancers, rated sensational tops in the square-dance field.

Colville planned to contact the famed group within the next few days.

Circleville police reported that Carl Caldwell, 13, of 213 W. Two Motorists Jailed For Drunk Driving

Only two defendants were on the minicipal court list today, but both received jail terms as part of their penalties as drunk drivers.

Charles DeWitt, 32, of Bloomingburg, O., was fined $100 and costs, given the mandatory three-day jail term, and deprived of his driving privileges for six months. DeWitt was arrested by Pickaway County Deputy Sheriff Carl White.

In addition to the drunk driving accusation, DeWitt was fined $25 and costs for operating a motor vehicle on a temporary permit without having a licensed operator with him.

The other driver, arrested by City Patrolman Forrest Sowards, was Raymond B. Fouch, 44, of Columbus. He was fined $100 and costs, sent to jail for three days, and given a six-month license suspension.

Keller Named New Super At Jackson School

Pickaway County Superintendent of Schools George McDowell announced today that John V. Keller has been advanced to the post of superintendent of Jackson Township School.

Keller, who has been serving as principal of the high school at Jackson, will thus take over the duties formerly held by Robert (Bob) Moyer. Moyer accepted a position at the Kingston-Union School in Ross County.

Keller was selected for the superintendent's position at a special meeting of the Jackson Township local school board last night.

A graduate of Ohio State University, he came to Jackson School in September 1952 as a science and mathematics teacher. After one year of teaching, he was made principal of the high school.

Wheat Allotments Await Applications

Farmers on land on which no wheat was seeded for grain for any of the years 1954, 1955, and 1956, may apply for a 1957 wheat acreage allotment, according to Wayne E. Luckhart, Chairman of the Pickaway County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

To be considered for an allotment on a farm which had no wheat seeded for grain for any of those years, the farmer must apply in writing to his county ASC committee by August 1, 1956.

Blank application forms are available at the county ASC office allotments.

New Magna Charta Is Current Need, HST Tells British

OXFORD, England (AP)—Harry S. Truman has called for a new Magda Carta to include: "economic well-being, health, education and decent living standards among our inalienable rights."

The former U. S. president made an appeal for a better life for underprivileged people in a speech last night before 400 graduates of Oxford's Christ Church College. Earlier, the ancient British university conferred an honorary doctorate of civil law on him.

"Every man should have the benefit of the best in medicine," he continued, "and every boy and girl the highest educational training from which they can profit. The aged should be free of economic worries in their declining years."

Roy Crosby Can Get Hearing Soon

The state pardon and parole commission has announced that Roy Crosby, a prisoner now confined in Ohio Penitentiary from Pickaway County, will be eligible for a hearing before the commission on or after August 1.

Crosby was convicted in May of last year of the crime of assault to rape and is serving a sentence of from one to 15 years. The Circleville man was accused of forcing his way into an E. Union St. home and beating a woman resident.

French Battle Rebels Anew

Nationalists Ambush Legionnaire Convoy

ALGIERS (AP) — French Foreign Legionnaires were fighting a pitched battle today with a band of nationalist rebels about 25 miles from the legion's storied headquarters at Sidi Bel Abbes.

The action erupted yesterday with the ambush of a legion convoy.

The convoy of about 100 soldiers and five vehicles radioed it was hit in midafternoon and had suffered losses. The French said their troops dug in and fought back, inflicting heavy casualties.

A battalion of legion troops was dispatched to rescue the convoy, but French spokesmen said it was not yet known whether it had reached the fighting area.

Another French unit ran into trouble at Ain Chair, near the poorly defined Algerian-Morocco border. The patrol of 30 men was attacked by 200 rebels, French spokesmen said, and lost 4 men killed, 4 missing and 10 wounded before aerial support swept in to drive back the nationalists. Rebel losses were not disclosed.

* * *

IT WAS NOT known whether the attack force was made up of Algerian rebels or members of an anti-French "Army of Liberation" in Morocco which backs the Algerian nationalists in their drive for independence.

In Algiers, military patrols were doubled after a bloody swipe through the city by a rebel commando band.

The raiders swept through the streets, spraying crowded cafes and bars with revolver fire. Two Europeans were killed and 13 wounded, including a 10-year-old girl. Police and military patrols killed two rebels and captured two in a running street battle.

French officials speculated that the raid may have been in reprisal for the execution of two convicted terrorists Tuesday.

11 Rail Unions Asking Pay Hike

CHICAGO (AP) — Eleven unions have joined in asking the nation's railroads for a pay increase of 25 cents an hour.

John Kolanda, secretary-treasurer of the Railway Employes Department of the AFL-CIO, said today the labor organizations have mailed notices of the demand to the individual railroads.

The unions involved include the shop crafts, clerks, signalmen, maintenance-of-way workers, and telegraphers. They are classed as non-operating because they don't work on moving trains.

Livestock Men Feeling Better About Business

But Wary Eye Is Kept On Life Expectancy Of General Good Times

By SAM DAWSON

DENVER (AP) — The men who have steaks, bacon and lamb chops still on the hoof are feeling better today. But they are keeping a wary eye on the life expectancy of the general good times as well as on the livestock markets.

With good times have come some of the meat industry's best friends: The big baby crops, the spreading custom of backyard grilling of steaks, the popularity of the hamburger with the young, the upgrading of consumer buying and increased meat consumption.

Livestock men are counting on the prices they get firming up a little more after their long drop. But they know that full paychecks and a feeling of prosperity throughout the land has a lot to do with boosting meat consumption to record highs.

They also know that good times determines to a large extent which of their individual meat products gets the public's money. The housewife switches quickly from expensive to cheap cuts, or even to meat substitutes when pay checks shrink or stop altogether for a while.

Cattlemen feel that the long drought is breaking, especially on the ranges to the north of here. Hog feeders in the Midwest have perked up since prices bounced back some from their lows. Sheepmen out here hope for firm prices on lambs, and also count on the government's new incentive payments on wool.

There's going to be plenty of meat going to market this fall. But people have been eating all that's offered, points out Radford Hall, executive secretary of the American National Cattlemen's Assn. There are no big inventories in storage. The cattleman's troubles stem from high production pushing prices to the weak side, from rising costs, and above all from drought in most regions to the south of here.

Despite the drought inroads the number of cattle in the nation has been growing. There are around 97½ million head, some 60 million of them beef cattle, both record highs. The association estimates that more than 13 billion pounds of beef will be eaten by Americans this year, some 82 pounds per capita.

Judge Sets Terms For Pair Of Birds

DALLAS (AP)—The only property Mr. and Mrs. George Spencer had to divide when they were divorced Wednesday was a pair of love birds.

Judge Dallas A. Blankenship awarded the male bird to Spencer and the female to Mrs. Spencer.

Mrs. Spencer pointed out that this is the mating season and to separate the birds would be a cruel injustice.

The judge amended his order to provide that "reasonable visitation periods are granted for the male bird to visit the female bird during the mating season."

Vote Is Sought On Fremont Tax

FREMONT (AP) — Petitions with 735 names were filed with the Sandusky County auditor yesterday calling for a referendum Nov. 6 on a proposed 1 per cent city income tax here.

The tax, designed to raise about $275,000 annually, was to have been effective July 1. Now, unless the auditor finds the petitions lacking sufficient valid signatures, the city income tax is dead for 1956. Mayor John M. Collins, predicted a 50 per cent cut in police, fire and park personnel next monh.

Kefauver Insists No Veep Nomination In His Plans

ORRVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver said here Wednesday he wanted it "made clear that I'm not running for vice president under any circumstances."

Talk of the Tennessean in the second-string spot has increased in recent weeks. In a news conference here he emphasized he's not interested in anything but the nomination to head the Democratic national ticket next November.

Kefauver came into Ohio six weeks after the state primary which he did not enter because, he told newsmen, he "made it a policy not to run in favorite-son states" and because his work in the Senate prevented him from making an Ohio campaign.

At the invitation of the Wayne County Young Democrats, he spoke Wednesday night to an audience of about 325 in the high school auditorium here.

In the audience were several Democratic candidates, including William R. Thom of Canton, former congressman who won election as an anti-Lausche delegate to the national convention from the 16th District.

Following his arrival at the Akron-Canton Airport Wednesday, Kefauver visited Wooster, Massillon, Canton, New Philadelphia and Dover and stayed overnight in Canton following his speech here.

Asked if it were a purpose of his trip to influence Ohio delegates, Kefauver said some of the delegates pledged to "favorite son" Lausche were "my good friends whom I have known before." Thom, he declared, also was his "good friend, but not the kind of man you try to convert."

Four years ago, without organization support, Kefauver won half the Ohio delegates to the Democratic convention. This year all but Thom and three Cleveland delegates out of the state's 58 are Lausche-pledged.

In his address, Kefauver assailed the present administration for what he contended was—

Its "creeping inflation" in which "the real victims are those people with fixed incomes."

Its federal give-away program.

Neighborhood Pals Act As Pallbearers

CLEVELAND (AP) — Eight-year-old Johnny Dale Mower, who was found drowned in Lake Erie last weekend, was buried yesterday in Lake View Cemetery.

Eight of his neighborhood pals were his pallbearers.

Johnny disappeared June 13 after he went out to play in a park near his home. He was the object of a widesread search by police and volunteers until his body was found. His death was ruled accidental.

Zoo Keepers Fail To Save Stray Cat

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—A stray cat entered the cage of a female chimpanzee at the zoo here Wednesday night and three zoo keepers tried vainly for nearly half an hour to save the life of the uninvited guest.

The chimp came out of the shelter at the rear of the cage and caught the cat by the tail. She jumped up to her trapeze and swung back and forth swinging the cat by the tail.

The zoo attendants coupled a hose and played a stream of water on the chimp trying to force her to drop the screaming cat.

The little drama ended when the chimp, piping mad and dripping wet tired of the game and swinging the cat above her head like a lariat, crashed the feline against the bars of the cage, killing it.

DuPont Eyes Site In Fayette County

WASHINGTON C. H. (AP) — The duPont Co. of Wilmington, Del., said yesterday it was closing an option on a 67-acre site on U. S. 35 near here for construction of a paint factory.

Approximately 100 persons will be employed at the plant, the company said.

WASTING THEIR BREATH

WHEN THE Eisenhower administration took over in 1953, the federal spending rate was approximately $72 billion a year. This was cut back $8 or $10 billion to stop the inflationary effect of government spending. Minor tax cuts were one result of this move.

It is reported that the federal government is again spending at the rate of $72 billion annually. In another year this will move up to $74 billion, and doubtless will go considerably higher as the full effects of road, school, housing, rivers, farm, welfare and other federal aid programs are felt.

This higher spending policy reflects in part neglect of necessary facilities during and after the war. Prominent in it also is the fixed federal habit of throwing gobs of money into any domestic weak spot. When trouble impends, the affected groups yell for Uncle Pappy to do something and the federal government speeds to the rescue.

It is clear that the country is not to have conservative fiscal policies, with lower taxes and a wearing down of the national debt. Neither party has nominated a presidential candidate committed to such a program for many years, for the reason that both parties judge the mood of the people to favor spending. After feeling his way along the economy course, President Eisenhower apparently has rejected it.

Some day public sentiment may favor economy, and then there will be political response. Until then the economy advocates might as well save their breath.

CORE AREA DECLINE

IT IS NOT of considerable moment that the Census Bureau finds the metropolitan areas of Washington, D. C.; Houston, Texas; Milwaukee, Wis. and St. Louis, Mo., are leading the average population rise in the United States by a wide margin. The general population gain for the nation as a whole since 1950 is 10.3 percent. But these cities' gains have been double or triple that pace.

What is of interest to all growing cities, is that these four have experienced a much slower rate of gain, or an actual loss, in population in the central or core area. Within the municipal limits of St. Louis itself there was a loss of 16,000. But the suburban areas grew so rapidly that Greater St. Louis had an increase of 27.5 percent.

In the presence of this testimony, there is no longer doubt that suburban population is running away with downtown population. Hence the outlying shopping centers which are reducing the trips of many people downtown to a bare minimum.

This is not to sing the swan song of the core area. They will continue and thrive, particularly as crowd-drawing attractions are added. But cities are getting so big that the pull of convenience is toward the periphery. Both merchants and customers will have to learn to live with it.

George E. Sokolsky's

These Days

The celebration in Egypt over driving the British out of the management of the Suez Canal means more than taking over the ditch that played such a role in the Victorian British Empire. Realistically, it means that Soviet Russia, Nasser's ally and underwriter, has developed a big role in the Middle East and that the system of Air Bases which the United States has erected in North Africa may well be liquidated by political action.

The key American base, the Wheelus Air Base, is in Libya which has been receiving a subsidy of approximately $17,000,000 a year from the United States and Great Britain.

Egypt and Saudi Arabia are offering Libya the same amount of money if Libya will join them and drop the United States and Great Britain. Saudi Arabia gets its funds from American oil companies which have developed the natural resources of that otherwise barren land. It would not at all be surprising if some day, Saudi Arabia drives out the American oil companies and sells the product to Soviet Russia. It might prove to be a profitable deal to Saudi Arabia for a while.

Will we protect American property and national interests by armed force? Probably not, under the theory that if a nation wants to be neutral, it ought to be permitted to be neutral because the United States was neutral in the early years of its history. This will go down in American history as the Eisenhower Doctrine alongside the Monroe Doctrine and the John Hay Doctrine of the Open Door.

The inadequacy of the Eisenhower Doctrine on Neutrality is that it does not explain to any country, for instance to Libya or to France or Italy, why all nations should not be neutral, bargaining as they can, with anyone that will bargain with them.

Or better still, why should not Libya take $17,000,000 from the United States, take whatever it can get from Egypt and Saudi Arabia and from anyone else that is handing out money as foreign aid while their own people suffer privations?

Why not grab whatever is lying around while the grabbing is possible? Maybe before long, some country will get wise to the futility of handing out of money "with no strings attached," and the weak and backward countries will grow weaker and more backward. What Libya asks for is an additional $67,000,000 for a six-year plan. Of course, nobody knows how much of this money will ever go down to the people.

It would be interesting to read a verificatiable account of what Ibn Saud has done with the hundreds of millions which have come to him, apart from proliferating harems. How much of this great wealth has worked its way to the Arab peoples?

The real measure of the value of foreign aid, certainly from this country, is not what goes to governments but what goes to the people in the form of higher standards of living, more education, better facilities for improving health, etc.

Adults Feel Immature Now

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Do you feel hopelessly immature in the presence of the younger generation?

Many older people do today, particularly parents. They feel their children are outgrowing them too fast.

One reason is the widespread custom of earlier weddings. Marriage at 18 and 19 is becoming commonplace.

"But the worst thing is they start going steady so young," one father moaned. "Girls only 12 years old seem to think they should have a steady boy friend. And if you raise a holler they say you're old-fashioned. They say all their girl friends the same age are starting to go steady, so why can't they?"

Kids that age, of course, are only aping the high school teenagers, among whom the custom of "going steady" is now a nationwide problem.

Some educators see it as only a passing fad, such as the wearing of denim pants or pony tail hair-dos. Others think it is dangerous and should be discouraged as much as possible.

Parents are as mixed up as the educators. Fathers generally are opposed to daughters in their tender mid-teens having a single beau. They have to restrain an urge to boot the young scalawag down the front steps everytime he whistles at the front door, or walks in without knocking.

Mothers are more tolerant.

"I'd rather have my daughter go steady with a boy who I knew was a good boy," said one, "than to date half a dozen, all of whom I couldn't be sure of."

The high school proms, as remembered by most middle-aged folk, are now a thing of the past.

"There is hardly any cutting-in any more," a mother said. "The couples that are going steady dance with each other all evening. There isn't much changing of partners."

That, of course, makes it pretty tough on the kids who don't go steady. They feel as out of place as an old maid at a party where everybody else is married.

Somehow this custom of teenagers going steady doesn't seem as alarming as it does depressing. Adolescence is a time when lifelong emotions are excited, but is it the time when they should be set in an adult pattern?

Youth is the age for change, experimentation and flirtation. Love should come and go like sunshine and cloud, not be fixed in a permanent pattern at a time when one is too young even to know what love means.

A realist might say: Oh, well, it really doesn't make much difference. Grownups may think they are only playing at love, but the hearts of teenagers are turbulent things. The ending of the game (and in most cases it will end, of course) can be a terrible emotional ordeal for either or both parties.

Why anyway, do so many kids who are still in the bicycle and algebra stage event want to go steady? That is the disturbing thing. They didn't want to a generation ago.

Is it that since the world is moving so fast, so blindly fast, they sense the need of some deeper kind of security than their homes or parents can give them? Do they feel a desperate necessity to grow up quickly in a world with so clouded a future?

Whatever the reason, it is a cosmic pity that in our civilization it is the old who try to stay young and the young who try to act old.

SYNOPSIS

Priscilla Paige, who is bored with her job in a New York office and unmarried, grasps at an opportunity to escape her humdrum existence when she is notified of an unexpected bequest from a great-aunt, and naturally her imagination is stirred by what follows. Her older, wiser friend, Rita Lambert, accompanies Priscilla on the auto trip to Apalachicola, Fla., to see the principal item in the bequest—an abandoned old mansion called Lookout House. The girls learn that the house is "haunted" and has a secret passage. The two decide to remain to appear to be just tourists until they know more about why three different men have taken a curious interest in the place and in them. The men are Bill Duval, who says he is a writer; Red Gallagher, a fisherman, and Luis Alvarez, a wealthy yachtsman.

In her first visit to the house, Rita finds $500 in brand-new bills on the floor, and Todd, the attorney for the estate, reveals that Alvarez is interested in buying the house.

The local belle, Peggy Pomeroy, is naturally annoyed that Priscilla has attracted the attention of her two best beaux, Pete Craig and Dick Devereaux.

CHAPTER 11

"DICK MADE a professional call to the girls last night," said Pete. "The younger one—her name's Priscilla Paige—ate too much shrimp or the wrong kind of shrimp or something. Gave her a tummy-ache. All the drugstores were closed and somebody told them about Dr. Devereaux."

"Did the treatment include meeting them at the drugstore this morning?" Peggy's tone was a little displeased.

"I didn't say he met them. I said he was talking to them—in fact, he was buying them a Coke. Anything wrong with that?"

"No-o, but a little unusual, don't you think? If you think she's so attractive, why didn't you barge in and get an introduction?"

Pete smiled and slid farther down in his chair. "I did. I had a Coke with them."

"Heavens above! Why didn't you say so in the first place? What does she look like?"

"Priscilla? I've just told you. Like Lauren Bacall. The other one is darkish, black hair, dark eyes. Her name is Rita Lambert. She writes or something."

"Well, I haven't seen them and I haven't any interest in them. Mother said two ladies had rented the Glass cottage for a short while. . . . Was she really sick last night?"

"Priscilla? Of course. Why else would she have called the doctor?"

Peggy swung her feet to the floor and sat up. "If I were in a strange town and was bored, and I knew there was a young, attractive doctor around, I might have indigestion or some other minor ailment."

Pete looked at her speculatively. "You might, at that. But in Priscilla's case, I think the indigestion was genuine. Look, Peggy. Instead of showing your claws, it would be a nice gesture if you'd call on those girls."

Peggy said, "I may do that very thing. If I'm going to have competition, I'd like to look her over. And I'll ask Dick about them—whether they're the kind one should call on."

"Give me a little time and I'll let you know." Pete got up. "I'm going to ask Priscilla for a date."

"Sometimes, Pete, I dislike you intensely. I think you do things just to aggravate me."

"Do you ever do anything to aggravate me?" Pete demanded, looking at her, not smiling. "And I won't ask her for a date to aggravate you. I'll do it because I want a date with her. And I'll tell you something else: don't be surprised if Dick does the same. He may have asked her for a date tonight. How about riding around with me? We may run into them."

Peggy was on the verge of saying no. But she had talked to Dick once today and he hadn't said anything about seeing her tonight. Pete would probably do just as he had said, manage somehow to wangle a date with the newcomer. And perhaps it might be well in the beginning to let that girl know she had priority on Pete. So she said she would be glad to see him tonight, and as her folks were dining out, he could take her over to Maud's for dinner.

After Pete had gone, she continued to lie there in the hammock. She wished there were a half-dozen eligible men here, so that she could make Pete and Dick jealous. Did she dare date Luis Alvarez? He was attractive and he had a beautiful boat. Of course, he was too old and Mama would probably have a fit if she did. Then there was Bill Duval. He and Dick had fished together, and Dick said he was writing a book, or collecting material for a book or something. He rode around a lot in that red Buick, must do all his writing at night. Oh well . . . Peggy stretched out in the hammock and was almost immediately asleep.

* * *

"Got a minute, Doctor?"

Involuntarily the young doctor's eyes went to his wrist. Then he said pleasantly, "Sure, I can take it, anyway. What's on your mind?"

"Women." A smile played over Bill's face. He opened the car door and got in.

The doctor laughed. "I thought perhaps that was it. The girl in the red slacks? I saw you watching us there in the drugstore. Why didn't you barge in, as Pete did, and get an introduction? I started to call you and just about that time you walked away."

"Who are they? And where did you meet them?"

Dr. Devereaux smiled. "The younger one's name is Priscilla Paige, the other one is Rita Lambert. They're from New York. Like you, Miss Lambert is a writer. I think they are here to get material for a book. Miss Paige ate too much shrimp last night and I was called."

"I see," Bill said. "A patient, an attractive one, calls the doctor at night. The doctor meets her next morning for a Coke."

Dick laughed.

"The older one looks Spanish," said Bill. "I understand her name is Zerita. That's Spanish, isn't it?"

"I don't know about the name, but I'm sure Rita isn't. That accent is just plain New Yorkese. The younger one, Priscilla, told me her mother's people were Southern."

"If they're from New York, why does their car have a Connecticut license tag?"

"Has it? I didn't notice. Anyway, I'm sure they said they were both from New York. Why do you ask, Bill?"

"Put it down to curiosity. One doesn't see many strangers who linger here for no apparent reason."

"Now that you mention it, the curiosity seems to be mutual. When you walked by, Miss Lambert asked who you were."

"She did?" Bill looked up from the cigaret he was lighting.

"Priscilla said something about having been in Apalachicola a couple of days and that they had seen you everywhere, wondered if you were following them."

Bill extinguished his match. "Why should they think they are being followed?"

"Because they see you everywhere they go. I assured them you were quite respectable, that you were a writer collecting material for a book. Miss Lambert looked as skeptical as you did when I told you she was a writer."

"I wonder," Bill said enigmatically. "Maybe it's just another coincidence. Two Spanish people here at the same time. You haven't seen the girls talking to Alvarez, have you?"

Everybody else connected with that tour who still lives to tell the tale is still awestruck by some of the troubles and crazy mishaps that befell the troupe.

One evening neither star could remember the lines at all, and about the only voice the audience heard was that of the frantic prompter offstage. For one poignant scene he had to repeat a speech six times The lady star finally told him imperiously, while the audience watched spell-bound, "We hear you perfectly, young man. But you have neglected to tell us whose lines these are!"

DIET AND HEALTH

Doctor Needs Your Help

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

ARE you a good patient? Do you help your doctor to help you?

Just as physicians have obligations to their patients, so do patients have obligations to their physicians. Close cooperation between them means better care for the patient and an easier job for the doctor.

Eight Rules

So, to aid all concerned, here are eight fundamental rules which will help you become a better patient:

1. See your physician regularly for periodic checkups.
2. Either keep your appointment or telephone the doctor's office to cancel it if you can't make it.
3. Don't expect special favors in the physician's waiting room. Don't assume that you should be taken ahead of prior commitments on the appointment book.
4. Tell your doctor even "unpleasant" facts about yourself if they may help him in his diagnosis.
5. Don't try to diagnose your own ailments or prescribe your own treatment.

Doctor's Orders

6. Follow your doctor's orders. After all, you're paying for his advice.
7. Discuss the question of medical and surgical fees openly and honestly and expect an honest and straightforward answer.
8. Your doctor probably is a very busy man these days. Don't tire him with a tedious detailed discussion of matters which do not pertain to your visit.

Physicians Job

Usually, it's up to the physician to acquaint his patients with these suggestions. People, it seems, just don't come by them naturally.

If a doctor can take a little time to discuss the reasons behind these fundamentals, he'll probably have good, loyal and appreciative patients. Patients, too, will then have a better understanding of the doctor.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

Mrs. S. J.: How may books be disinfected after having been handled by a person with a contagious disease?

Answer: Very little attention is paid to books as a possible spread of disease. Usually, it is best to air for at least 12 hours everything in a room in which there has been a case of contagious disease. All articles should be exposed to the sunlight as much as possible.

However, if the infection is due to smallpox the books and other articles should be destroyed.

Luscious red raspberries combined with tender-thin flakes of coconut swirled through rich vanilla ice cream . . . there's a recipe destined to become a Summer favorite! Why? Two reasons: One, it's DELICIOUS to eat . . . two, it's EASY to make.

"Do you know any really good — really easy recipes?" That's a question heard more and more often these busy days . . . and the nice part of the answer is heard that "The best things to eat are becoming the easiest to make"! One reason is that everybody (that includes manufacturers of foods) is meeting the current trend in "lessening work for homemakers". The result is what one would expect . . . excellent recipes — like this!

Coconut-Raspberry Swirl

1/2 cup tender-thin flaked coconut
1 cup sweetened red raspberries, pureed
1 quart vanilla ice cream, softened

Combine coconut and raspberries. Place spoonfuls of ice cream and coconut-raspberry mixture alternately in freezing tray of refrigerator. With knife or spatula, swirl through both mixtures in zigzag course. Set control for coldest freezing temperature. Freeze until firm. Freezing time: 2 to 3 hours. Makes 6 servings.

Rev. Mitchell Gives Talk At Pickaway DAR Meeting

The highlight of the annual June luncheon meeting of the Pickaway Plains Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution was a talk entitled, "Flag," by the Rev. Donald Mitchell, pastor of Presbyterian Church.

Approximately 60 members and guests were in attendance for the meeting held in Presbyterian Church.

Following the luncheon the business was called to order by Regent, Miss Marie Hamilton. Mrs. R. Rae Bales repeated the quotation from the year book.

The Regent assisted by Mrs. Christian Schwarz, Chaplain, opened the meeting in ritualistic form.

Mrs. Charles Wright led the pledge of allegiance followed by the group singing the national anthem, accompanied by Mrs. Martin Cromley.

Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, program chairman, introduced the guest soloist, Mrs. Ralph Dunkle. Mrs. Dunkle sang "There Are Many Flags in Many Lands," "America, Mine Own," "The Riddle Song," "River Shanty" and "Thank God For a Garden."

Mrs. Johnson also introduced Barbara Renick and Rebecca Rocky, who were winners in the fifth grade history contest sponsored by the local Chapter. Both essays entitled, "The Moundbuilders" and "Old Circleville, Before the Circle Was Squared," were read at the session.

The Rev. Mr. Mitchell in presenting his speech said that the flag in itself is a beautiful flash of colors and is of slight value even as a piece of merchandise to people, who are not willing to daily business in a way that will think, act and carry on their bless the Republic for which it stands. It is a symbol of all that makes America great.

The Rev. Mr. Mitchell continued to say that righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people. Blessed is a nation whose God is the Lord, and the people whom He has chosen for His own inheritance.

To conclude his talk the Rev. Mr. Mitchell repeated the "America's Gospel."

Miss Hamilton announced that the national theme for the next year is "Cherish and Maintain American Freedom" and the Ohio theme if "Looking Ahead."

It was announced that members could renew their subscriptions to the National DAR magazine and DAR News by contacting Miss Florence Dunton, chairman.

Mrs. Clarence McAbee gave a report on boxes sent by the Chapter and Mrs. Forest Croman read two recommendations from the Board.

Mrs. Charles May assisted the hostess committee, which included:

Mrs. Dorothy R. Gerhardt, Miss Florence Hoffman, Mrs. Rolland Featheringham, Miss Ruth Montelius, Mrs. W. R. Seeds, Mrs. J. D. Hansen, Mrs. Lee Luellen, Mrs. Paul Mattheas, Miss Eliza Plum, Mrs. Jay Hay, Mrs. George Gardner and Mrs. Henry Lewis.

Refrigerator Pies Family Favorite

One way to salute the summer months is to treat the family to refreshing refrigerator pies refreshing not only to taste but to make since they require no baking.

For a beautiful banana pie to take care of six servings, soften envelope plain gelatin in ¼ cup cold water.

Take 1-3 of 2-3 cup sugar and two egg yolks. Stir in one cup cold milk. Cook over low heat until mixture coats a metal spoon, stirring constantly. Stir in softened gelatin.

Meanwhile, beat two egg whites until they stand in soft peaks. Gradually beat in remaining 1-3 cup sugar and fold into custard.

Fold in 1 cup sliced bananas, teaspoon pure vanilla extract, and ½ cup heavy cream, whipped. Turn into a 9½ inch pie plate, lined with vanilla wafers (takes about 1½ boxes two ounces each, vanilla wafers). Chill until ready to serve.

To serve six with Vanilla Charlotte Russe Pie, soften teaspoon unflavored gelatin in ¼ cup cold water.

Add ½ cup hot milk, 1-3 cup sifted confectioners' sugar and 1-16 teaspoon salt. Mix well, then chill until mixture begins to thicken.

Stir in one cup drained, crushed pineapple.

Beat two egg whites until they stand in soft peaks. Beat in teaspoon granulated sugar and fold into gelatin mixture.

Then, fold in teaspoon vanilla extract and one cup heavy cream, whipped. Turn into 9½ inch pie plate lined with three ounce package lady fingers. Chill until firm.

Summer Coiffure Should Be Simple

Hot, hotter, hottest! These are the three words to describe the Summer days ahead.

Are you ready for them, with a hairdo that is cool and easy on the upkeep?

It should be a simple coiffure. An away-from-the-face style is a good bet; even better if hair at back is off the neck. Too much hair curling around face and neck will make you look and feel warm and uncomfortable.

Next, you will want to skip those tedious bedtime settings. Who wants to set pin curls when the mercury is zoomed up to the 90's? The way to avoid this, of course, is to give yourself a permanent wave in the privacy of your home and in the coolest possible way.

Choose your time. You can wait until there is a breezy break in the weather. On a hot day, you will find that the cool, cool, cool of the morning is best for a waving session. Pick the most comfortable place you can think of, breezeway, porch, sun-shaded kitchen or garden, cool basement, even the bathtub if that is where you will be happiest in hot weather.

Then, select your waving kit.

If time is of the essence, you will probably prefer a separate neutralizer permanent because the over-all time is shorter. If it is just a light end curl, try a tip-curl kit. It is fast, too, comes in both separate and self-neutralizing types.

The self-neutralizing kits are ideal for homemakers. They are for those who do not mind spending a longer time drying with their hair in curlers.

If you are handy making pin-curls, then a pin-curl permanent is your answer. This type usually needs more frequent renewing than the kind you roll up on curlers, but its speed and simplicity make it worth while.

Personals

The Goff-Lemley reunion will be held Sunday at Gold Cliff Park. Cold drinks will be furnished with the basket dinner.

Members of the Wesley-Wed Class of First Methodist Church will hold a family picnic at 6:30 p. m. June 27 at Ted Lewis Park. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fisher will be in charge of the entertainment to follow the picnic.

Washington Grange will meet at 8 p. m. Friday in the township school.

June is Dairy Month. It is also homegorwn strawberry time in Ohio. This is a very friendly "natural" coincidence, as strawberries usually demand an accompaniment of milk or a milk product.

The recent cool damp weather will probably result in a smaller strawberry crop in Ohio than was anticipated.

Since strawberries are popular 'round the clock and the year 'round, we should all go shopping for the present and future while the quality is at its best.

The freezing method of preservation is a great asset for future ways and means!

If one should be wondering whether the "budget" prefers fresh frozen or canned berries, the following statistics from Consumer Marketing Specialists at Ohio State University can serve as a guide:

* * *

One quart of good quality fresh strawberries will make five half-cup servings. A one-pound, four-ounce can contains the same number of servings. A 10-ounce package of frozen berries will make about half that number.

Figuring the comparative cost of the different forms is simple. Since a quart of fresh berries and a one-pound, four-ounce can provide the same number of servings, the cost per serving is the same when the price of a quart of fresh berries is the same as that of such a can. On the other hand, since a 10-ounce package of frozen strawberries takes only half the number of servings as either of the packages, the cost per serving of frozen berries will be the same as that of fresh berries when a 10-ounce frozen package sells for half the price of a quart of fresh strawberries.

The frozen berries are already prepared and sweetened. If the homemaker figures the value of her time, or dislikes the job of cleaning and preparing fresh berries, she might prefer the frozen package, even at a relatively higher price per serving.

Size is not a good indication of quality. Flavor depends on variety and not size. Large berries may be preferred if they are to be served whole. It is best if they get to the consumer—with their caps on!

Strawberries are a fragile, delicate fruit. Handle carefully and as little as possible. Store in a refrigerator with wax paper covering. Just before serving, wash quickly and gently in cold water—do not let them stand in the water because this will cause a loss of flavor and color. Remove the caps and serve.

An excellent source of vitamin C is the strawberry. This fruit also contains vitamin A, calcium, and iron. They are low in calories, providing only about 55 in a cup of the berries.

* * *

With the increase in appetites (youthful as well as adult) for cooling beverages during the increasingly warmer weather, milk drinks offer a variety of healthful thirst quenchers. If every person in the United States drank just two more ounces of milk every day, there would be a shortage instead of a surplus.

To increase the use of milk, the United States Department of Agriculture suggests setting up a milk bar or milk shake center in the hom. A variety of different fruit flavorings and juices—such as strawberries — and other aids should be readily available.

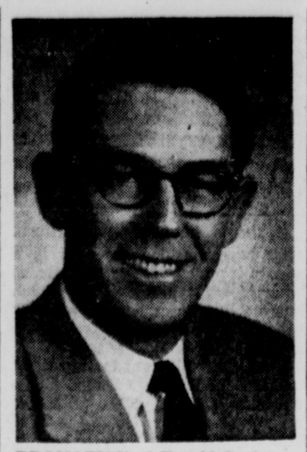
Barbecue parties are currently popular. There are plenty of broilers and fryers available. Young chickens, weighing 1¾ to 3 lb., ready to cook, are a good size for barbecuing. Detailed barbecuing information can be obtained by writing to Emil Malinovsky, Extension Poultryman, Poultry Building, Ohio State University, Columbus 10, Ohio.

Dope On Lawyers Learned In Movie

LANCASTER, Ky. (AP) — Two boys, ages 9 and 10, stopped at the office door of City Judge Edward R. Roark.

"A-t-t-o-r-n-e-y, what's that?" one asked.

"Aw," replied the other, "that's attorney, same as lawyer in cowboy pictures."



PROMOTION of Harold B. Cornwell of Athens to district special representative for the Ohio Fuel Gas Company, was announced today by Frank W. Phillips, Athens district manager for Ohio Fuel. Cornwell, 45, above, has been district business promotion manager since 1953. He is succeeded in that position by Bernard H. Kellogg of Fremont, who previously served as a gas adviser for Ohio Fuel in the Fremont district. As special representative, Cornwell will assist Phillips in the supervision of district operations.

Du Pont Planning WCH Paint Plant

Exercising of an option taken last January on a 67-acre site near Washington, C. H. was announced today by the DuPont Company.

The land is being purchased with a view to eventual construction of a paint plant employing about 100 people. In making this announcement, however, the company emphasized that no construction project has been authorized, so that these plans must still be considered tentative.

The site is located in a general farming area about 3½ miles northwest of Washington C. H., at the junction of U. S. Highway 35 and the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad. The property has a 3,300-foot frontage on Highway 35, is bounded on the north by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, and on the east by Bush Road.

The property is owned by Kathryn M. Fults, Jane Campbell, Harry H. Campbell, Charles M. Fults and Dorothy J. Fults. The owners are being formally notified now that the company is exercising the option.

It probably will take about a month to wind up the details of the transaction and make the actual purchase.

New Idle Payment Claims Increase

COLUMBUS (AP)—New claimants for unemployment insurance jumped to 8,790 for the week ended June 19 compared with 7,998 the previous week, the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation reports.

Continuing claims for the week ended June 16 totaled 48,554 compared with 48,749 the previous week. The average of continuing claims in June 1955 was 39,106.

World Today

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press
News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—World Communists will now follow a line unheard of in Stalin's day: They'll criticize one another. This could wreck international communism if carried too far.

Until that day comes the criticism can be taken with a grain of salt. It is simply following the program outlined by Commnist party boss Nikita Khruhchev in his speech revealing the crimes of Stalin.

The purpose is simple: A Communist party in a nonCommunist country may gain more mass support by appearing to operate as a nationalist party instead of, as in Stalin's day, part of a Russian conspiracy.

Since Stalin never let them open their mouths, the problem for the Red leaders everywhere now is how to criticize one another without causing splits or damage.

This was clearly explained—but in Communist doubletalk—by the American Communist party leadership to its Central Committee two months ago. That was two months after Khrushchev made his speech.

That some self-criticism is the new line for Communist parties everywhere was made plain Wednesday in the declaration signed in Moscow by Khrushchev and Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia.

Agreeing to cooperate, they said:

"The two sides have agreed that the foregoing cooperation should be based on complete freedom of will and equality, on friendly criticism and on comradely character of exchange of views on disputes between their parties."

Given some years in the practice of criticism, it is possible that Communist parties will develop internal antagonisms and break off into sects and factions.

If that happens, then all else that President Truman did to try to stop communism may seem insignificant beside his simple decision to give help to Tito when Tito broke away from subservience to Stalin.

Stalin had maintained absolute control of Communist parties everywhere until 1948 when Tito shook loose.

Under Khrushchev set out, shortly after Stalin's death, to win Tito back as a friend if not as a servant. And he succeeded. But in making concessions to Tito, he showed other Red leaders how badly Russia wanted them not to bolt.

With this new softer approach, it is natural Khrushchev would be willing for other Communists outside Russia to raise some questions about the Kremlin from time to time, provided they didn't go too far.

Korea is known to Koreans by the name Chosen, which means "Morning Calm or "Morning Peace."

New Barn-Raising Job Faces Amish

MOUNT VERNON (AP) —Among the Amish, when a man's barn burns everyone pitches in to rebuild it.

The barn of Joni Yoder, 10 miles northwest of Mount Vernon, burned last August. True to tradition, his neighbors helped him build a new one.

Tuesday, the second coat of paint not yet dry, the new barn burned. Yoder estimated the loss at $17,000. It was believed overloaded wiring was to blame.

The Amish now have a new barn-raising facing them.

Savings Accounts Show Increase

COLUMBUS (AP) — Savings accounts in Ohio savings and loan firms will set records in the first half of 1956.

A 41 per cent growth, a 24 per cent increase in additions to accounts, an 8 per cent increase in the number of accounts and a reduction of 4 per cent in the ratio of withdrawals in ocmparison with the first half of 1955.

Ohio s City-County Names Can Be Rather Confusing

By ART PARKS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—This being the vacation season, it becomes a civic duty to point out to newly adopted Ohioans—and some old-timers—the pitfall in jumping to the hasty conclusion that Ottawa is in Ottawa County.

Or that Shelby is in Shelby County or that Logan is in Logan County, Warren in Warren County or Washington Court House in Washington County.

Or, for that matter, that Hamilton is in Hamilton County.

Fair warning: Only 16 Ohio counties have within their borders towns of the same name. More than two-score Ohio cities and villages have names identical to counties in which they are not located.

Let's get back to Ottawa. If you go to the county on the shore of Lake Erie, you'll look high and low for the town that isn't there. You'll find Ottawa is the neat little county seat town of Putnam County about 75 miles southwest.

Shelby is in Richland County in north-central Ohio. Shelby County is in western Ohio.

Logan is the county seat of hilly and picturesque Hocking County. Logan County is hilly and beautiful too, but it's well over 100 miles from Logan. The latter is southeast, the former northwest.

Warren is in Trumbull County in the industrial northeast; Warren County is in the agricultural southwest.

Washington County has a court house in historic Marietta, but it isn't Washington Court House, which is the seat of Fayette County in the corn-hog region of southwestern Ohio.

Hamilton is right next door to Hamilton County, but it's in Butler County. Just about all you'll find in Hamilton County is Cincinnati and its sprawling suburbs.

You won't find Sandusky in Sandusky County, either. It's in Erie County, next door. Fremont is the Sandusky County seat.

Would you go to Franklin County to find Franklin? Of course not. Franklin is down in Warren County, near Cincinnati, and nearly 100 miles from Columbus and Franklin County.

Would you be in Marion County if you drove to Marion? You're wrong. You would. That's one of the 16 counties which harbor cities or villages of the same name.

To save further confusion, here are the others:

Ashland, Ashtabula, Athens, Belmont, Columbiana, Coshocton, Defiance, Delaware, Gallia, Jackson, Lawrence, Lorain, Medina, Paulding and Van Wert.

Now, if you've got the strength, here are some other cuties:

Crawford is in Wyandot and Scioto counties, not Crawford.

Auglaize is in Allen County.

Hocking is in Athen County.

Carroll is in Fairfeld County.

Clinton is in Summit County.

Clark is in Coshocton, Cuyahoga, Darke or Summit counties. Take your choice.

Fairfield is in Columbiana County.

Fayette is in Fulton County and Fulton is in Morrow or Belmont counties.

Hardin is in Shelby County; Harrison is in Hamilton, and Huron is in Erie.

Jefferson is in Ashtabula or Wayne counties.

You'll find Lucas in Richland County and Madison in Lake County. Mahoning is in Portage County and Meigs is in Morgan. Morgan, however, is in Logan or Pickaway counties. Morrow is in Warren County and Miami is in Hamilton.

Down in Butler County you'll find Monroe, but you won't find Montgomery near Dayton but in Hamilton, county, not city.

Noble is in Cuyahoga (part of Euclid) or in Summit County.

Perry turns up in Lake County and Portage in Wood County. Putnam is part of Zanesville in Muskingum County and Richland is in Vinton County.

You'll find Ross in Butler and Carroll counties and Summit is in Licking, Hocking, Richland and Ross counties.

Trumbull shows up on the map in Ashtabula County, Union is in Montgomery County, Vinton is in Gallia County and if you go to Wayne you'll be in Wood County.

That's all. Don't say we didn't warn you.

Ike To Get 60 Books On Western Lore

SANTA FE, N. M. (AP) — The Western Writers of America, a dedicated group whose members sometimes feel misunderstood, are preparing a getwell offering of their own books for their top fan, President Eisenhower.

An estimated 60 autographed books by authors, who include some of the country's best known Western writers, will be sent to the convalescing President along with their best wishes.

Bill Gulick of Walla Walla, Wash., president of the association, said:

"Of course, since it is an election year, we wanted no political implications. Since we were conventioning in Santa Fe, it seemed logical to ask some New Mexico figure to make the presentation to Mrs. Eisenhower. So we asked Sen. Clinton Anderson if he'd be willing. He answered that he would be delighted to see that the President gets the books."

The President reportedly has read Westerns for years.

Television Used In Steel Furnace

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—Closed-circuit television system developed by the Radio Corp. of America is speeding and improving steel production at the Weirton (W. Va.) Steel Co. by permitting operators to "see inside furnaces."

Ralph A. Teare, manager of RCA industrial products, said that the system enables Weirton employes 150 feet away to see and control processing operations inside big reheating furnaces.

Teare said three cameras are involved, each placed at the side of a reheating furnace and connected to a monitor in the furnace's remote-control booth.

Canton Industry Awaits Vacation

CANTON (AP)—Thousands of Canton workers will be vacationing at the same time during the last few days of June and the first two weeks of July.

Six major industrial plants and many smaller ones will close.

Closed will be the Timken Roller Bearing Co., the Ford Motor Co. plant, Canton Drop Forging & Manufacturing Co., Industrial Forge & Steel, Inc.; Hercules Motors Corp.; Diebolt Safe & Lock Co. and many smaller plants.

Some firms always have closed around the same time but this is the first time that such a huge part of Canton's payroll will vacation at the same time.

Akron Baby Boy Drowns In Bathtub

AKRON (AP)—Daniel Rafferty, 7 months old, drowned in a bathtub at his home.

His mother, Mrs. Bernard Rafferty, said that when she turned away for a moment to use the telephone, the child went under.

Brazil To Get Aid

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP)—The United Nations will ship five million pounds of dried milk from this port to Brazil within the next few weeks. The milk, for needy children in Brazil, was purchased from U. S. Surplus stocks.

Sokolsky's

How much of the money that the United States has paid out to any nation is used in this manner and how much goes to the coffers of the ruling families? Ibn Saud, for instance, has ample reason to be grateful to the United States, but he is not and the question might well be asked whether he believes that he owes us anything at all. And that question might be asked of all countries as long as our aid is not directly employed to benefit the people of a country and not only the rulers of it.

This has been an important problem since the days of UNRRA when we discarded the World War I and post-World War I relief experience and adopted a pattern which benefited governments. The discarding of all prior experience was characteristic of the 1940's which suffered from what might be called a Marco Polo complex; that is, each man became an original discoverer of what had already been discovered and fully explored.

But we are now in 1956 and it would seem that we should have earned something by experience and one thing we might have learned is that there is no value in giving our wealth away except on the basis of doing something to help the people of a country raise their standard of life and doing it with an American label.

Too Poor To Go To College, HST Wins Laurels At Oxford

OXFORD, England (AP)—Harry S. Truman, who was too poor to go to college, has received an honorary degree from Oxford, one of the world's most distinguished universities.

Tears filled the eyes of the former U. S. President when Lord Halifax, chancellor of the university, conferred the degree of doctor of civil laws with this eulogy:

"Truest of allies, direct in your speech and in your writings, and ever a pattern of simple courage. . ."

Truman smiled, choked up, and then quickly whipped out a handkerchief and blew his nose.

"Never, never in my life," he whispered to a reporter, "did I ever think I'd be a Yank at Oxford."

He had explained to correspondents that his father's business reverses had prevented him from going to university after a boyhood on a Missouri farm.

Asked by a reporter how many honorary degrees he had received Truman replied:

"I must have a couple of dozen. But this is really a big one."

The auditorium of Oxford's ancient Sheldonian Theater rang with applause as the degree was conferred. It swelled in volume as Truman faced 94 crimson robed professors in the packed auditorium and flashed a broad smile.

"I've attended a lot of these convocations," said an old professor after the house became quiet. "I don't remember when there was ever so much applause. Mr. Truman is very popular in this country."

Mrs. Truman, sitting several rows behind her husband also wiped the tears out of her eyes.

There are some 30,000 Iowa farmers who don't have a milk cow on their farms.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Ada is 27 and I am 29 and we have been married eight years. We have three children—ages 3 years, 2 years, and 10 months — and a fourth is expected.

My wife is a wonderful person, as freehearted as a girl can be, and I love her very much. But right now she is peeved at me. The reason? Well, on Friday nights after work I stop downtown for a drink with the fellows (we can't afford bars so we buy a bottle and go to our building) and sometimes we play cards.

I never lose money to speak of, and never use house money or neglect my bills; and never get drunk. But I stay pretty late, and when I do Ada gets very cold to me. I believe a man is entitled to a night out; and a wife the same (with a limit on time).

Ada won't go anywhere if I ask her too; says it is too much trouble, taking the children, and I admit it is, on subways, etc. But it is the only way we can go, as we live far out, in a low-rent area, far from people we know. It is pretty lonesome for us—though I go to work and see people every day—and a strain on Ada, who never gets away, nor has a minute to herself.

Ada is an extra special person, and when I have extra money, I always give her some, plus her regular money. But she always buys for the house, or the children or me, never for herself—always wants to help me, with bills, etc. Maybe I am not a good manager of money, and maybe not a good head of the house, but I do my best.

S.Y.

DEAR S.Y.: It is my impression that you are a pretty nice fellow, but you have a bad conscience about Ada — and rightly so, it seems. The fact is, you aren't giving your best to her or the marriage. You aren't putting her happiness, or her welfare, or her companionship first, in your leisure time—which is the only time you have to share with the family, really.

That's why Ada freezes up, when you come in from a late night out with the fellows. She feels taken for granted, rated second-best, in comparison to a bottle, a deck of cards and some workaday cronies of yours. Is that intelligent treatment of a sensitive, warmhearted girl whom you really love?

Ada is soon to have her fourth child in four years. Moreover, she has been under mounting strain of loneliness (a morale-wrecker), and quasi-neglect on her husband's part, since she gave up her job to be a full-time wife. Thus gradually her emotional health is fraying out.

Ada's peeve at you, her tendency to retire and weep, and her attitude that social effort isn't worthwhile, are symptoms of emotional depression, which sneaks up on a burdened person who has been too long out of touch with meaningful friendship and true companionship. The housewife in this condition needs deep help, in the form of sympathetic understanding, and opportunities forcefully provided, for "taking a break" from isolated relentless routine.

Inasmuch as you need detailed leadership, in learning how to be a good husband in the special circumstances, I advise you to discuss your concern about Ada with a staff counsellor at the Family Service Agency in your area. It will be greatly to your credit to make this effort on her behalf.

M.H.

Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write to her in care of this newspaper.

Corn Cultivator Strangles Girl, 3

MILLERSBURG (AP) — Three-year-old Alice Wilson strangled near here in a freak accident on a corn cultivator.

Alice and her sister, Judith, 7, had been playing on the cultivator in a shed at their farm home near Holmesville.

Suddenly the control bar by which the implement is operated from a tractor fell on her neck.

The sister, Judith, screamed, and the mother, Mrs. John T. Wilson, ran to the shed and lifted the bar. But Alice was dead on arrival at a hospital here.

Fall Kills Roofer

COLUMBUS (AP) — A 40-foot fall from a new addition being built at the Ternstedt Division plant of General Motors Corp. here yesterday killed Howard Taylor, 32, a roofer.

Braves Showing New Power As Haney Arrives

Milwaukee Now Leading League After Pulling Up From Fifth Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

What is it with Fred Haney? He takes over from Charlie Grimm, who resigned as Milwaukee manager under fire after losing 12 of 17 to tumble from first to fifth, and four days later the Braves are leading the National League again.

The Braves haven't lost since Haney, who never finished better than last in three other shots as a NL skipper, reluctantly took over in Brooklyn last Saturday night. They made it five in a row Wednesday night, completing a sweep of three from the plunging Pittsburgh Pirates 7-3 to move back into the top spot as last place Philadelphia junked Cincinnati's hold on the lead 3-2.

That caused yet another revision in the hectic NL standings, giving Milwaukee a 13-point edge over the Brooklyn Dodgers, who snapped a three-game losing streak with a 4-2 decision over St. Louis. The Cards hold fourth, 2 points back of the Redlegs, who in turn are 2 points behind the Brooks.

The Pirates, with five straight defeats, are fifth, but still very much in contention only one game behind the Braves.

New York's Giants reclaimed sixth place from Chicago, beating the Cubs 4-1.

In the American League, the New York Yankees made it seven-in-a-row as Mickey Mantle jolted his 26th and 27th home runs in a 4-1 verdict over Detroit. The Chicago White Sox held second, 5½ games behind, with a 12-8 decision over Baltimore. Cleveland ended a third place tie with Boston by topping the Red Sox 5-4 in 10 innings. Washington came from behind to beat Kansas City 5-4.

The Braves have been playing like most folks figured they could since Haney took charge. Question is, why? He's the same type of "nice guy" manager as was Grimm. In his 15 years as a pilot, he's had two pennant winners, both at Hollywood in the Pacific Coast League.

In the majors he was last in three tries with the Pirates, who released him after last season, and was no better than sixth in three years as field boss of the old St. Louis Browns in the AL.

Haney, 58, hasn't juggled the Braves' lineup or junked Grimm's pitching order, but he's had results. Gene Conley, for instance, pitched his first complete game since last July 10 for his second victory Wednesday night while Danny O'Connell and Bobby Thomson each batted in a pair of runs as the Braves scored five in the fifth to beat Vern Law.

Curt Simmons, winning his third choked off the homer-socking Redlegs on seven singles while the Phils, with just six hits, beat Art Flower on Stan Lopata's 12th home run.

The Dodgers scored three in the third with Carl Furillo lining a two-run double to beat the Cards and Wilmer Mizell, third lefty to start against the Brooks this season and first to start against them in Ebbets Field since last August 26. Roger Craig won his sixth, with Clem Labine relieving in the ninth. Second baseman Charley Neal turned Stan Musial's hard bases-loaded smash into a force out in the ninth to end it.

Chicago used five pitchers and the Orioles seven—two short of the AL's two-team record — and the White Sox iced it with four runs in the sixth. Chicago had 15 hits, Baltimore 14.

Washington put together an error, two walks and a sacrifice fly in the ninth to beat the A's who fell into the cellar with their 19th defeat in 25 home games this season.

Young Golfer Scores Well In Tourney

A local young golf enthusiast, Alex Antonio Jr., son of Pickaway County Club pro Alex Antonio, took part in the Ohio Junior Golf Tournament at York Wednesday.

The 11-year old golfer was a gallery favorite in the tourney, registering 210 for the 36 holes, and finished near the top in his age group standings.

This is the first golf tournament Alex has entered, according to the Country Club pro, and his present performance shows real promise.

However, young Antonio's interests are divided between baseball and golf, and reports indicate he may become a top-notch pitcher with a few more seasons of experience.

Satterfield Wins Decision In Bout

CHICAGO (AP)—A boxing "dud" who keeps exploding, Chicago's Bob Satterfield today drew a bead on a heavyweight match with equally unpredictable Tommy "Hurricane" Jackson.

Satterfield, a 3-1 underdog, last night pounded an end to young Johnny Summerlin's 12-bout winning streak with a unanimous decision here.

The 32-year-old Satterfield, outweighed by 11 pounds, nearly knocked Summerlin out of the ring in the third round with ponderous rights and then went on to win by a substantial margin.

Contact Sports Said Victim Of Undercover Attack

CHICAGO (AP) — The new chairman of the Illinois State Athletic Commission says an "undercover attack" appears to be directed against contact sports, such as boxing and football, in the U. S.

Frank Gilmer says:

"If Russia wanted to make sure the United States becomes a nation of 'softies,' the present trend in contact sports would indicate a good start in that direction.

"Eight colleges have dropped boxing recently. In pro boxing, a charge of crookedness persists. In college boxing, the complaint is that head injuries prevail.

"If boxing goes, what's next? Probably football. Then ice hockey, wrestling and what have you in the contact filed. Then what's left? Sports that will leave us softies."

Indians Win, But They Do It Hard Way

CLEVELAND (AP)—"It's good to win, but we sure did it the hard way," was Cleveland Manager Al Lopez' view of the 5-4 victory his Indians scored over Boston in 10 innings last night.

Lopez apparently had in mind particularly how three Tribe runners were caught off base.

In the fourth Vic Wertz was trapped off first by catcher Sammy White's throw with the bases loaded. Earlier in that same inning, pitcher Herb Score overran first base and was tagged out by the shortstop. Otherwise he could have scored on Al Smith's double. Then in the ninth Chico Carrasquel singled a runner to third, but went too far around first and was picked off.

Nevertheless, the Indians managed to get five runs on 11 hits, nine bases on balls and two hit batsmen. Sixteen Cleveland runners were stranded.

The game-winning blow was a single by Al Rosen with two out, which scored Bob Avila who had walked and gone to second on Gene Woodling's sacrifice.

An eighth-inning home run by Gene Woodling tied the game.

The Red Sox got only five hits, four off Herb Score who went six innings. Score was tagged for Jackie Jensen's eighth homer in the first inning.

Redlegs Sign Up College Standout

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Hank De Vincent, 22-year-old LaSalle College graduate, has signed a contract with the Cincinnati Redlegs.

DeVincent, an outfielder who averaged .403 in three years at LaSalle, signed for a bonus estimated at just under $4,000. He will be farmed out to one of the Redleg minor league affiliates.

Mantle Gets Chance To Show Power

DETROIT (AP)—One of the American League's best southpaws decided to let Mickey Mantle supply his own power, and the magnetic Yankee slugger responded and had power to burn.

Billy Hoeft, the Detroit Tigers' leading pitcher, fed the New York Yankee centerfielder two change-up pitches in last night's game in Briggs Stadium.

The 24-year-old Mantle, who has exhausted every superlative with his home run feats, churned both pitches far over the stadium fences to lead the pace-setting bombers to a 4-1 victory.

They were his 26th and 27th home runs and put him comfortably ahead of the pace set by Babe Ruth when he clubbed a record 60 home runs in 1927. Ruth did not hit No. 27 until July 8.

The heir-apparent to Ruth's title of the Sultan of Swat hit the home runs right handed. Only six of his 27 round trippers have been hit from that side of the plate.

Mantle, who had driven a fast ball out of the park two days earlier, went hitless in his first two trips. But both times he hit the ball solidly, grounding out to third and lining to centerfield. And both home run drives carried well over the 400-foot mark.

Ever Bowling Wife Irks Clevelander

CLEVELAND (AP) —Frank T. Doane, 43, has asked common pleas court to order his wife not to bowl more than one night a week.

His wife, Delphine A. Doane, 39, spends four nights weekly in the bowling alleys and is ridden by the "unreasonable obsession that she will one day be national woman's champion," said Doane.

He filed a cross-petition in answer to a divorce action initiated by Mrs. Doane a month ago.

Doane also complained his wife's bowling average is about 50 pins better than his and she won't let him bowl with her.

Ohio State To Host 244 Golfers In College Tourney

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The National Collegiate Golf Tournament, which was a stepping stone to golfing greatness for many of the current crop of professionals, will offer 244 players from 66 universities at the week-long 59th running of the fixture starting Sunday.

Ohio State University's 7,120-yard par 72 Scarlet Course will provide the test for the fourth time. The rolling, tree-infested layout has two lake holes. A creek meanders across five fairways and parallels another. The rough is high and thick.

Sunday, two 12-man teams, representing the East and West with the Mississippi as the dividing line, will battle in a best-ball fray.

Monday and Tuesday call for 18-hole qualifying rounds, sending 64 players into the match play bracket through Saturday. All matches will be at 18 holes except the grand finale, which is booked for 36.

Joe Campbell of Purdue, the 1955 victor at Knoxville, Tenn., will try to repeat—a feat only three men have accomplished since before the turn of the century, and none has performed since G. T. Dunlap Jr. of Princeton did it in 1930 and 1931.

During the qualifier, 36 universities will seek the four-man team title won last year by Louisiana State. Each school will be allowed six players in the team event, with the four low scores counting.

Thirty other colleges have entrants seeking the individual championship. Ohio State's 36-hole course is the only layout to entertain the collegiate tourney more than once since the NCAA took over management of the event in 1939. The USGA had operated it from 1897 until then. The tournament was never held west of the Mississippi until the NCAA took over.

Among the professional stars who gained their first big-time tourney experience in the collegiate event are Freddie Haas, Earl Stewart, Gardner Dickinson, Cary Middlecoff, Gene Littler, Mike Souchak, Art Wall, Bo Wininger, Lawson Little, Fred Wampler and Tom Nieporte.

Nieporte was the victor here in 1951, defeating his Ohio State teammate, Don Johnson, in the all-Ohio final. Both runners-up, Brownell and Johnson, were killed in plane crashes—Brownell during World War II and Johnson in a crash in Alaska.

The 36 univesities in the four-man team race include Ohio State, Michigan, Michigan State, Ohio University, Bowling Green and Ohio Wesleyan. Among those with one or more entrants in the individual race are Ashland, Youngstown, Ohio Northern and Western Reserve.

Throne Room Position Lost By Redlegs

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Cincinnati Redlegs moved on to Brooklyn today, evicted from the throne room of the National League standings by the tail-end Philadelphia Phillies.

The Redlegs skidded to third place here last night as the Phillies beat them, 3-2, with pitcher Curt Simmons and Handyman Stan Lopata, currently catching, doing most of the damage.

The costliest blow from the Cincinnati standpoint was Lopata's sixth-inning home run. It proved the margin of victory.

It was the seventh loss for right-hander Art Fowler. He's won four.

The Phillies got their first run in the third as Ted Kazanski drew a pass, went to second on an infield out and scored on Richie Ashburn's line drive single to center. They got run No. 2 in the fifth on Willie Jones' double and a single by Roy Smalley.

The Redlegs got one run in the fourth, when Frankie Robinson walked, went to third on Ed Bailey's single and scored on a sacrifice fly by Ray Jablonski.

In the seventh, Jablonski and Roy McMillan hit successive singles. Alex Grammas advanced them with a sacrifice bunt, and Johnny Temple's sacrifice fly scored Jablonski.

Idle today, the Redlegs open a four-game set in Brooklyn Friday.

Ohio Anglers Told To Stick With Lakes

COLUMBUS (AP)—If you are figuring on fishing this weekend, you'd better pick a lake or reservoir. The Ohio Division of Wildlife says the state's streams are muddy and roily and will stay that way through the weekend.

But fishing in some of the still-water spots is good to poor, the division pointed out in the following sectional survey:

Northwest: Streams high, muddy and roily due to heavy rains; fishing fair to poor in lakes, with best results at Oxbow in Defiance County, and East Harbor.

Southeast: Best fishing in following lakes: Atwood, Leesville, Burr Oak, Clendening, Tappan, and parts of Buckeye and Alma.

Central and South: Streams muddy and high, and no weekend improvement looked for; fishing fair in Rocky Fork Lake, Delaware Reservoir and Jackson Lake.

Southwest: Several lakes, including Kiser, Grant, Stonelick, and Indian in fair condition with several species being taken; streams roily and high.

Mac Vo Captures Hilliards Laurels

COLUMBUS (AP)—Mac Vo, driven by Bob Wells, provided the shortest time and the longest pay-off of the evening at Hilliards Raceway last night, edging Newsman in a photo finish in the sixth race.

Mac Vo turned the mile-long B Class pace in 2:09 and paid $40.60 to win. Newsman, pre-race favorite, paid $3.40 for second place.

Pastrano Booked To Test Holman

CHICAGO (AP)—A 10-round heavyweight "elimination" bout between Willie Pastrano of New Orleans and Johnny Holman of Chicago in Chicago Stadium July 18 has been announced by the International Boxing Club.

The winning may be a potential contender for the title vacated by Rocky Marciano by retirement.

Pastrano, ranked No. 7 in the heavyweight division, has lost only 4 bouts in 46 starts. Holman, No. 5 heavyweight, has a 31-12-1 record.

Airport To Get Moving Ramps

AKRON (AP) — The Akron-Canton Airport will have moving rubber ramps in the new $1½ million terminal building.

The board of control has approved the ramps in architects' plans. They will cost an estimated $19,500 each.

Four ramps will connect the first and second floors.

'Goofball' Control Asked By O'Neill

CLEVELAND (AP)—Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill says the next Legislature should place controls on "goofballs," used by some truck drivers to ward off fatigue.

O'Neill said several fatalities have resulted from the unsupervised use of amphetamines, or so-called "goofballs."

He said amphetamine is ten times as potent as caffeine, and helps keep users awake.

"Exorbitant use may keep a person awake for as long a period as three nights, but when natural sleep inducing processes overcome the drug the individual goes out like a light," he explained.

Pinball Case Sent Back To Lower Court

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Second District Court of Appeals has sent a case involving pinball machines, back to the Franklin County Common Pleas Court for a rehearing.

In 1954 the Ohio Board of Liquor Control suspended the liquor license of G. R. Stickley and E. F. Peotter, doing business as Strick's Place, in Wauseon, Ohio. The suspension was for 15 days. The license holders had been cited for having a gambling device on the premises.

Stickley and Peotter appealed the suspension to the Franklin County Common Pleas Court, and the court reversed the liquor board.

The attorney general's office then appealed the decision to the Second District Court.

In a brief opinion given Tuesday, the appeals court said it had been holding up a decision pending action by the Ohio Supreme Court in another case. Just recently the high court ruled that pinball machines offering free plays for high scores were gambling devices banned by law.

The appeals court said today that in view of the high court's decision, it was reversing the Franklin County court decision and sending the case back to that court for a new hearing.

Pinball Revenue 'Sorely Needed'

EAST LIVERPOOL (AP) — The City of East Liverpool sorely needs the license revenue of pinball machines, says Safety Director William Heasley.

He told the city council that pinball machines which do not give free games were legal and should not be barred. The machines contribute $6,000 a year to the city's treasury.

Nehru Starting Tour Of Nations

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru flew to Damascus today on the first lap of a month-long salted to take him to London, Washington and other captials.

Nehru planned a night stopover at the Syrian capital before pushing onto the London meeting of British commonwealth prime ministers.

The Indian leader is scheduled to visit in Washington with President Eisenhower July 7-10, but there has been speculation the President's illness may force a change in plans.

Nehru's itinerary also includes stops at Frankfurt, Hamburg and Bonn in Germany, and visits to Paris; Brioni, Yugoslavia; Cairo, and Beirut, Lebanon.

Scholarships Go To 460 Ohio Grads

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state department of education today granted scholarships to 460 Ohio high school graduates.

Harold J. Bowers, director of teacher training, said each scholarship worth $500, was made possible through a renewed appropriation made by the 101st General Assembly last year.

Scholarship recipients are free to attend any one of 25 Ohio colleges offering an approved program in elementary teaching, Bowers said. Ohio's six state colleges and universities and 19 private colleges offer this program, leading to the "cadet" elementary certificate.

Approximately 300 of an original group granted scholarships in 1953 completed the work and taught in Ohio this year, Bowers said.

The selection of scholarship applicants is made by a county committee. The applications then are reviewed by the state department.

If an applicant has graduated in the upper one-half of his class and is in need of financial aid to prepare for elementary teaching, final approval is granted, Bowers added.

Sufficient funds were appropriated for 500 scholarships, but 19 counties did not fill their quotas.

Compensation Fund Rates To Be Cut

COLUMBUS (AP) — The premium rate on payments by Ohio manufacturers into the Workmen's Compensation Fund will be reduced effective July 1.

The overall reduction of 7.7 per cent affects more than 150,000 employers, officials say. The fund provides industrial accident and occupational disease insurance protection for more than 3,200,000 workers in the state.

Red Leader Dons Evening Attire

MOSCOW (AP)—The new look in Moscow is getting newer.

Visiting President Tito of Yugoslavia threw a gay party for his Soviet hosts at the swank Soviet-Skaya hotel. All the big leaders of Soviet communism were there.

The subject of attention was A. I. Mikoyan, Armenian revolutionary of Bolshevik days. Mikoyan was wearing a white dinner jacket. It was the first time in the memory of the Moscow diplomatic corps that a Soviet leader turned up at a function in evening attire.

Record Road Bill Near OK In Congress

Measure Is Expected To Go To President By Early Next Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $32.9 billion highway construction bill, a record-breaking peacetime government spending measure, neared the stage of final congressional action today.

Two sets of Senate-House conferees arranged to meet on the big bill amid indications it might be sent to President Eisenhower early next week.

The conferees working on construction features of the bill virtually finished their work late yesterday, but scheduled a final session for today to consider some minor language revisions.

Meanwhile, the conferees working on tax features of the legislation arranged their first session. Sen. Byrd (D-Va), heading the Senate group, said in advance he did not anticipate difficulty.

The House voted for $14.8 billion of additional taxes over 16 years to help finance the big roadbuilding program. The Senate cut $300 million from this figure by easing special levy on heavy trucks.

* * *

THE CONFEREES arrived at the $32.9 billion figure, lower than those used by either the House or the Senate, by limiting to three years the bill's application to primary, secondary (farm to market) and urban road programs.

The Senate's $37 billion program had projected these for five years. The House, in counting $51 billion, had estimated a 13-year program.

But the federal money available for these three systems would be increased over the present $700 million a year. The allotments would total $825 million in fiscal 1957, $850 million in 1958, and $875 million in 1959.

Presumably future Congresses would continue them at the $875 million level or higher. These federal funds are matched 50-50 by the states.

The compromise bill includes $47½ million for interstate system, 90 per cent of it federal money. This is the key feature of the bill; it envisages a network of superhighways extending into every state.

Kentuckian Shuns Post As U.S. Senator

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—A Democratic appointee to the U. S. Senate has declined the post and the Republican party has delayed selection of a senatorial nominee for Kentucky's November election.

Joseph J. Leary, 49-year-old Democratic leader, was appointed to the Senate Monday by Gov. A. B. Chandler. In announcing his decision, Leary said yesterday that "a sincere desire to bring peace to the ranks of the Democratic party in Kentucky" had led him to consider the senatorship.

Leary, who has served as a speech writer and adviser to both Chandler and Sen. Earle C. Clements, said he was convinced, under the circumstances which now exist, that he couldn't accomplish his peace objective.

Kentucky's Democratic party is split between two factions, one headed by Chandler and the other by Clements and former Gov. Lawrence Wetherby. The Democratic State Central Committee Tuesday named Wetherby as the party's nominee for the unexpired term of the late Sen. Alben W. Barkley in the November election. The committee is controlled by forces friendly to Clements.

Chandler said he would try to fill Barkley's seat "in a reasonable time."

Bigger, Better Fairs Due In '56

COLUMBUS (AP) — Administrators of most of Ohio's 96 county and independent fairs predict bigger and better expositions await Ohio fairgoers this season. The prediction came as administrators met here yesterday at the annual mid-summer conference of the Ohio State Fair Managers Assn.

Eight committees to discuss various fair problems were named by Charles J. Betsch of Chillicothe, association president.

Red Probers Eye Famed Playwright

WASHINGTON (AP) —Playwright Arthur Miller, who says he is to be Marilyn Monroe's next husband, was undergoing examination today by the House Commmttee on UnAmerican Activities.

During a break in the questioning, Miller said he and the film star would be wed before July 13. He explained that he had been too busy recently to fix an exact date with Miss Monroe, but "I hope to settle it right soon."

He told the committee today "I was never under Communist party discipline. As for contributing to front groups I wouldn't deny that—I'm here to tell you the truth."

Miller said he does not recall most of the incidents about which he was questioned, but added: "I would not deny it."

"I would like to say I did sign a lot of things in those days," Miller said, but went on:

"At the present time I would not be doing it, that's all."

He said he did things in 1947 because "this suited the mood I was in." He said in those days he was not in an "investigating mood."

Miller also said "I would not now support a cause dominated by Communists."

Accusations concerning Miller's political activities have shadowed him for years.

A tall, lanky man of 40, Miller became prominent in 1944 when his play, "All My Sons" was a hit of the Broadway season and won the New York drama critics award as the best of the year.

Four years later his "Death of a Salesman" took both the Drama Critics and Pulitzer prizes, and in 1952 "The Crucibel" received another theatrical trophy, the Antoinette Perry award.

* * *

SEVERAL YEARS ago the other part of Miller's headline career began. A private organization which studies the backgrounds of individuals in the entertainment profession, Aware, Inc., listed him as allegedly having belonged at some time to several organizations listed by the U. S. attorney general as subversive.

In 1954 the State Department rejected Miller's request for a passport to Beglium (to see a production of one of his plays) under regulations denying passports to persons believed to be supporting the Communist movement, whether or not they had belonged to the Communist party.

Last year, the New York City Youth Board, a semiofficial city agency, rejected plans to make a movie about juvenile delinquents after several veterans organizations protested because Miller had written the script outline.

Miller, who previously has never been called by any official investigating agency, issued a sharply worded statement when the movie was called off.

"Now let us see whether fanaticism can do what it could never do in the history of the world," Miller said. "Let it perform a creative act, let it take its club in hand and write what it has just destroyed."

Miller was born in New York City, Oct. 17, 1915, son of a women's clothing manufacturer. His aim was quickly focused on the stage. At the University of Michigan he majored in English and playwriting, then got his professional start in 1939 with the Federal Theatre Project.

U. S., France Split On Red Relations

WASHINGTON (AP) — A French-American split appeared evident today over the problem of how to deal with Russia despite a round of diplomatic talks between Foreign Minister Christian Pineau and Secretary of State Dulles.

Pineau arranged to leave for New York by plane today en route home after apparently failing to convince Dulles the West should adopt a more daring trade and cultural contact policy toward Russia.

Five and possibly six differences cropped up during the Dulles-Pieau talks, although top American officials sought to minimize them as the kind of differences that were to be expected among free peoples.

The officials stressed Pineau and Dulles were agreed on the over-all objective, that of encouraging development of a peace-loving Russia. The Dulles-Pineau differences that were disclosed were over how best to achieve this.

Despite this on-the-record optimism, many top American officials were known to be concerned lest Pineau's ideas win wide acceptance among other Western countries at a time when Moscow appears to be trying to drive a wedge into Allied unity.

* * *

THE CLASHING Dulles-Pineau views, as they showed up in Pineau's windup speech yesterday and resumes of their talks provided by informed officials, appeared to cover these main points:

EAST-WEST CONTACTS — Pineau urged big scale economic and cultural exchanges with the Soviet bloc. Dulles opposed this, insisting such contacts be on a "selective basis" to prevent Soviet agents from flooding into newly independent and backward countries where they would stir up trouble.

* * *

TRADE — Pineau appealed for easing of trade restrictions on shipments to Eestern Europe and Communist China. France would like to sell television equipment and the new "Caravelle" jet transport to the Soviets. Dulles agreed only to let experts study items individually.

* * *

FOREIGN AID — Dulles turned a cold shoulder to Pineau's idea that Western nations, including the United States, agree to distribute part of their economic aid through the U.N. instead of directly.

* * *

RUSSIAN POLICY—the two disagreed on the significance of policy changes inside Russia since party chief Nikita Khrushchev demolished the Stalin legend. Pineau took the view many of the more liberal changes, particularly in the economic field, were "absolutely irreversible." Dulles said it was too early to judge their significance and that a harsher Soviet policy could be substituted.

GERMANY—Dulles agreed with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer that Russia must agree to unite Germany to prove the sincerity of its new-look policies. Pineau said it was an "exaggeration," to believe nothing could be done to improve East-West relations until the German problem is settled.

* * *

Lausche Meeting With Dem Chiefs

COLUMBUS (AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche met today with Democratic leaders to plan Ohio's part in the national convention here his name will be placed in nomination for President.

Lausche is Ohio's "favorite son" candidate of 54 of the 58 Buckeye delegates to the convention opening Aug. 13 in Chicago.

Lausche said conferees would set a date for a meeting of Ohio delegates before July 15 to make convention plans.

FBI Gets Warrant In Ohio Kidnaping

ALLIANCE (AP)—The FBI today obtained a fugitive warrant against a woman accused of kidnaping a 3-year-old boy from his crib here Tuesday.

The woman was identified as Bessie Wright Johnson, 34, common law wife of Lester Johnson, 32, a scrap yard worker charged with conspiracy to kidnap.

Agents quoted Johnson as saying he took Mrs. Johnson and the infant son of Mrs. Anna Lee Daniel to Canton where they got aboard a Chicago-bound train.

Lancaster Plagued By Another Big Fire

LANCASTER (AP)—A fire of undetermined origin yesterday damaged the front part of a two-story building housing the Snyder Electric Supply Co.

The building, located in this city's business district, is next to one housing the Lancaster Frozen Food Locker Co. and Crystal Ice Co., which was partially destroyed by a blaze last week.

Damage from that fire was estimated at $200,000. In yesterday's blaze, unofficial estimates of damage ranged between $50,000 and $100,000.

Atomic Fuel Sold

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has agreed to sell Autralia 1,100 pounds and France 88 pounds of U235 to fuel atomic power plants.

East Germany Claims 19,064 Prisoners Free

Woman Justice Chief Under New Fire For Directing Prosecution

BERLIN (AP) — East Germany's Communist rulers announced today they have freed 19,064 prisoners most of them held for political crimes. At the same time the Reds opened a new and violent attack on the woman who put many of the prisoners behind bars, "Red Hilde" Benjamin.

The blast at 54-year-old Mrs. Benjamin, the grim-faced, heavy-set minister of justice, was the strongest so far from within the party. It could foreshadow a purge of the top women in the East German government.

Mrs. Benjamin and prosecutor Gen. Ernest Melsheimer were accused of unjustified arrests, illegal activity against the people and too ruthless administration of justice.

Mrs. Benjamin first came under attack last March at the third party conference. Premier Otto Grotewohl accused her justice ministry of illegal activity and ordered it to "safeguard the rights of citizens" through closer control over the courts.

The Red regime said it had freed so many prisoners in recent months as a demonstration of its strength and its will to reunify divided Germany.

* * *

THE ATTACK on the prosecution and administration of justice in East Germany followed a pattern set by the Kremlin after the exposure of Stalin terrorism.

The special commission said Mrs. Benjamin and Melsheimer had "let themselves be persuaded by theoreticians alien to life that even a careless violation of a street traffic ordinance by a cyclist, motorist or pedestrian was an expression of increased class fight."

Meanwhile, in Weimar and Magdeburg an undisclosed number of Soviet troops boarded trains for the long ride back to Russia.

The movement was part of the much publicized withdrawal of 35,000 troops from East Germany. The Russians are urging the Western powers to follow suit and trim their forces in West Germany.

The East German government press office said 15,756 of those released were convicted of political crimes, including espionage for the West.

The other 3,308 were Germans sentenced by Soviet military tribunals for war crimes. Imprisoned in Russia since the war, they were turned over to the East Germans during the winter when other Germans held in the Soviet Union were allowed to come home.

Fuel Injection System Lauded

CLEVELAND (AP)—Fuel injection systems for automobiles is "probably the best correction" for dangerous exhaust fumes that afflict big cities, the research vice president of Thompson Products, Inc., told a meeting of engineers here last night.

Arch T. Colwell predicted to the American Society of Mechanical Engineers that fuel injection devices for autos would be available next year.

Fuel injection forces fuel directly into each engine cylinder separately, giving it exactly the amount needed and avoiding the expelling of unburned gases which results from use of carburetors.

Grazed Crop Land Gets Soil Bank OK

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department announced today that crop land grazed up to June 22 this year may be placed under the new soil bank program.

Heretofore, regulations had banned from inclusion in the soil bank any crop land on which a crop had already been harvested, hay cut or grazed any time this year.

The revised regulation still excludes any land on which crops have been harvested or cut.

THIS SAD TALE concerns a bull that ventured into a place called a packing house in Chicago. When he found out what was in store for him, the otherwise friendly bull broke loose and hoofed it to the fire escape. Unfortunately, fire escapes are built for people and the bull didn't make it all the way down. The police came and shot the bull.

Highway Council Still Cool On Planning No. 2 Turnpike

COLUMBUS (AP) — A spokesman for the Ohio Highway Construction Council says the council will stand by its decision not to act at this time on a Highway Department request for funds to finance plans for the end portions of a proposed north-south turnpike.

Lauren Glosser, executive secretary of the council, made this announcement yesterday after Gov. Frank J. Lausche asked the department to proceed with plans and specifications for construction of the 82-mile northern and 34-mile southern sections as toll free roads.

Highway Director S. O. Linzell last week asked the council for $7¼ million to finance the planning. But the council refused to act until the department said whether use of the money for planning would create fund shortages on construction approved for 1956-57 and whether funds would be left available for emergencies.

A Highway Department spokesman said answers to the council's questions were being prepared.

Gov. Lausche said yesterday the money for the planning would have to come through the council and expressed belief that members would see the wisdom of making it available.

He added that it would be better for Ohio to get highway planning done "too slow than too late."

Originally, the Conneaut to Cincinnati route was proposed throughout as a toll road in which case the Turnpike Commission would handle the planning and construction. But financiers have indicated turnpike bonds would not find a ready market now.

The two sections in question run from the Pennsylvania border near Conneaut to Turnpike No. 1 south of Cleveland and from the northern end of Cincinnati's Millcreek Expressway to Dwyers south of Dayton.

Lausche conferred with turnpike and highway department officials yesterday. Afterward, he released a statement saying, in part:

"With the seemingly assured passage of the federal highway program and the present inability to build Turnpike No. 2 as a toll highway, it is essential that the Highway Department of Ohio get prepared with plans and specifications for those highway projects which it is certain will have to be built in the future."

School Aid Bill Nearing House Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — The way was open today for the House to vote, probably next week, on a four-year federal aid school construction program amounting to $1.6 billion.

The legislation cleared the House Rules Committee yesterday after it had been bottled up there for several months because of the effect it might have on public school segregation.

In a parallel action yesterday, Southern Democrats and Republicans teamed in the House Education Committee to kill a bill calling for the federal government to pay the cost of integrating public schools.

Southerners on the Rules committee have opposed the bill for one reason: Rep. Powell (D-NY) has said he will propose an amendment on the House floor that would forbid federal grants to schools which maintain segregation.

Such an amendment would be bound to touch off a major fight. If the amendment were approved and the bill got to the Senate, its chances would be slim in the face of a southern filibuster.

The legislation calls for federal grants for school construction at the rate of $400 million a year for years. In addition, a revolving fund of not more than $750 million would be set up to buy local school bonds if these couldn't be disposed of in the market at reasonable interest rates.

Washington C.H. Judge Asks Action By State Agency

WASHINGTON C. H. (AP)—Juvenile Judge Robert L. Brubaker says he will take legal action if the Ohio Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction does not take custody of a 14-year-old deaf mute.

Judge Brubaker contemplates filing a mandamus action to compel the department to take charge of the boy whom police here say has a long record of scrapes with the law.

A spokesman for the department said the youth recently was released from the Columbus Juvenile Diagnostic Center. He said he did not know what action the department planned to take, if any.

Sleeping Policemen Not Interrupted

COLUMBUS (AP) — Mayor Walter B. Moling of Whitehall, answering criticism from citizens that Whitehall policemen were not diligent enough, admitted last night he had found two policemen sleeping in their cars in the Columbus suburb.

But both were Columbus officers, Moling declared.

A councilman asked the mayor what he did when he discovered the sleeping policemen.

"I let them sleep," was the mayor's prompt reply.

Probe Started In Air Mishap

Venezuelan Experts Heading For New York

NEW YORK (AP) — Venezuelan government inspectors flew northward today to try to find out why a giant four-engined airliner burst into flames and fell into the sea within sight of New York, carrying 74 persons to their deaths.

The Venezuelan Super Constellation crashed 32 miles off the New Jersey coast early yesterday, beyond the territorial waters of the United States.

It was out of the jurisdiction of the U. S. Civil Aeronautics Board, but the CAB quickly went into action, collecting what evidence it could and standing ready to help its Venezuelan counterpart probe the tragedy.

Officials of the airline, Linea Aeropostal Venezolana, said Venezuelan inspectors flying from Caracas will arrive tonight.

Twenty of those aboard were Americans. Of the Venezuelans, 24 were students in this country, ranging in age from 12 to 20, returning home for summer vacations. Others were French, Italian and Spanish.

The plane left Idlewild Airport at 11:18 p. m. Tuesday. Not far from New York, one of its engines began spinning wildly out of control. The big ship swung around to return to Idlewild.

* * *

ON THE WAY back shepherded by a Coast Guard plane, the pilot, Capt. Luis Plata, prepared to dump 5,000 gallons of explosive gasoline into the ocean, routine precaution.

Suddenly a burst of flame bellowed out under the aircraft.

Someone in one of the airliners in the area shouted a warning: "get your speed about 160 — get your speed about 160 — you're on fire."

But there was no time. Like a falling star, the plane nosed over and dove almost straight down, then struck the ocean.

Joint Steel Talks Resumed By Union

NEW YORK (AP) — The United Steelworkers Union resumes joint contract talks today with steel's "Big Three" following two days of abortive negotiations on an individual firm basis.

The union threatens to call out 650,000 workers in the basic steel industry if a contract settlement is not reached by June 30—expiration date of the current contract.

The steelworkers broke off negotiations last Sunday with the "Big Three"—U. S. Steel, Bethlehem and Republic—after turning down a "stand pat" offer.

'Mr. PS' Says Merchants Must Be Considered

Local Rumors Had Jubilee Event Set For Full Week

Bob Colville, the man who dreams of Circleville's Pumpkin Show all year through, said today he is firmly opposed to making this year's big Golden Jubilee event longer than the usual four days.

Because the planning for the 1956 show is expected to go all-out in tribute to the fiesta's 50th anniversary, it had been widely rumored that this year's fun would be extended over a full week. Directors of the annual whoopee have yet to decide definitely on the length of this year's show, but it appeared certain they would be heartily in accord with Colville's views.

Colville commented on the length of the 1956 show while revealing he has signed up a top-rank feature—the U. S. Army Field Band—for the program that begins next October 17. The band is the only armed forces band authorized to make concert tours at Uncle Sam's expense, and is in wide demand throughout the nation.

Stressing the hope that the public will not be misled by the erroneous rumors, Colville said:

* * *

"IT JUST wouldn't be fair to the merchants of Circleville to have the show last longer than the usual four days. For many of the merchants, even the four days means a serious reduction in their trade, and we certainly don't want to make the show longer.

"After all, we can—and intend to have—a tremendous show in just four days. Far better to have four really big days than to try for five or six little ones.

"As far as I'm concerned, it would cause no end of trouble if we tried to have the streets shut off longer than we do now."

Colville revealed that a Circleville native, James G. Dunton, who now resides in Washington, D. C., helped to line up the Army Band for this year's show here. Dunton, well known here and a close friend of Colville, is deputy director of special activities in the federal Department of Defense.

In a letter assuring Colville that the band would include the Pumpkin Show in its schedule this Fall, Dunton pointed out that the 100-

DROODLES

"TEXAS ALPHABET SOUP"

Texans have a reputation for doing everything in a Big Way. In New York people think every Texan is an Oil Tycoon and mere millionaires are considered riff-raff. We keep hearing stories about the Texan who was so rich all his land had well-to-well carpeting. This is the same fellow who has 32 Dentists, one for each tooth, and who had his driver's license photograph taken in Cinemascope. Then there was another Texan whose wife wanted a diamond so he bought her the Polo Grounds. These stories may be true but personally I figure there must be a couple of poor families down there who have to drive Buicks and who only own a measly 7 or 8 hundred acres of land.

Chamber Head Cites Gains By Smaller Firms

Paul A. Johnson, president of the Circleville Chamber of Commerce, said it is "surprising as well as encouraging" to note the progress being made by small businesses throughout the nation.

Apparently to correct reports to the contrary, the U. S. Chamber of Commerce from its Washington, D. C., offices has emphasized that the average small business in America is doing well. The national Chamber based its statement on the Federal Trade Commission - Securities and Exchange Commission's quarterly report for manufacturing corporations.

Johnson called attention to figures showing substantial gains for the average small business in 1955 over 1954. His data was confirmed by the national Chamber's report.

It shows that, in the last year, corporations with assets of less than $250,000 have shown the greatest increase in profit margins of all classes. Profit margins for this group were 57.1 per cent higher than 1954 levels.

* * *

THIS COMPARES with an average increase for manufacturing corporations of all sizes of 20 percent. Also, profits per dollar of sales for corporations from $250,000 to $1,000,000 in assets have risen faster than the average for all corporations (though not as fast as the profits of the smallest group).

It is often said that the increasing number of business failures shows that small business is not sharing in the present prosperity, the national Chamber notes. But, while it is true that business failures have risen since 1950, the number of new incorporations in the same period, shows a greater increase—36 percent against 24 percent.

If the pessimistic reports about small business were all true, the Chamber asks, how would it be possible for such large numbers of new business to spring up?

Colville said he has tentative plans to have the Army musicians give a concert on the Pickaway County courthouse steps, providing the county commissioners will give permission. "I haven't had a chance to ask the commissioners about it yet," Colville said, "but I imagine they'll okay the idea."

New Magna Charta Is Current Need, HST Tells British

OXFORD, England (AP)—Harry S. Truman has called for a new Magda Carta to include: "economic well-being, health, education and decent living standards among our inalienable rights."

The former U. S. president made an appeal for a better life for underprivileged people in a speech last night before 400 graduates of Oxford's Christ Church College. Earlier, the ancient British university conferred an honorary doctorate of civil law on him.

"Every man should have the benefit of the best in medicine," he continued, "and every boy and girl the highest educational training from which they can profit. The aged should be free of economic worries in their declining years."

French Battle Rebels Anew

Nationalists Ambush Legionnaire Convoy

ALGIERS (AP) — French Foreign Legionnaires were fighting a pitched battle today with a band of nationalist rebels about 25 miles from the legion's storied headquarters at Sidi Bel Abbes.

The action erupted yesterday with the ambush of a legion convoy.

The convoy of about 100 soldiers and five vehicles radioed it was hit in midafternoon and had suffered losses. The French said their troops dug in and fought back, inflicting heavy casualties.

A battalion of legion troops was dispatched to rescue the convoy, but French spokesmen said it was not yet known whether it had reached the fighting area.

Another French unit ran into trouble at Ain Chair, near the poorly defined Algerian-Morocco border. The patrol of 30 men was attacked by 200 rebels, French spokesmen said, and lost 4 men killed, 4 missing and 10 wounded before aerial support swept in to drive back the nationalists. Rebel losses were not disclosed.

* * *

IT WAS NOT known whether the attack force was made up of Algerian rebels or members of an anti-French "Army of Liberation" in Morocco which backs the Algerian nationalists in their drive for independence.

In Algiers, military patrols were doubled after a bloody swipe through the city by a rebel commando band.

The raiders swept through the streets, spraying crowded cafes and bars with revolver fire. Two Europeans were killed and 13 wounded, including a 10-year-old girl. Police and military patrols killed two rebels and captured two in a running street battle.

French officials speculated that the raid may have been in reprisal for the execution of two convicted terrorists Tuesday.

11 Rail Unions Asking Pay Hike

CHICAGO (AP) — Eleven unions have joined in asking the nation's railroads for a pay increase of 25 cents an hour.

John Kolanda, secretary-treasurer of the Railway Employes Department of the AFL-CIO, said today the labor organizations have mailed notices of the demand to the individual railroads.

The unions involved include the shop crafts, clerks, signalmen, maintenance-of-way workers, and telegraphers. They are classed as non-operating because they don't work on moving trains.

Livestock Men Feeling Better About Business

By SAM DAWSON

DENVER (AP) — The men who have steaks, bacon and lamb chops still on the hoof are feeling better today. But they are keeping a wary eye on the life expectancy of the general good times as well as on the livestock markets.

With good times have come some of the meat industry's best friends: The big baby crops, the spreading custom of backyard grilling of steaks, the popularity of the hamburger with the young, the upgrading of consumer buying and increased meat consumption.

Livestock men are counting on the prices they get firming up a little more after their long drop. But they know that full paychecks and a feeling of prosperity throughout the land has a lot to do with boosting meat consumption to record highs.

They also know that good times determines to a large extent which of their individual meat products gets the public's money. The housewife switches quickly from expensive to cheap cuts, or even to meat substitutes when pay checks shrink or stop altogether for a while.

Cattlemen feel that the long drought is breaking, especially on the ranges to the north of here. Hog feeders in the Midwest have perked up since prices bounced back some from their lows. Sheepmen out here hope for firm prices on lambs, and also count on the government's new incentive payments on wool.

There's going to be plenty of meat going to market this fall. But people have been eating all that's offered, points out Radford Hall, executive secretary of the American National Cattlemen's Assn. There are no big inventories in storage. The cattleman's troubles stem from high production pushing prices to the weak side, from rising costs, and above all from drought in most regions to the south of here.

Despite the drought inroads the number of cattle in the nation has been growing. There are around 97½ million head, some 60 million of them beef cattle, both record highs. The association estimates that more than 13 billion pounds of beef will be eaten by Americans this year, some 82 pounds per capita.

Judge Sets Terms For Pair Of Birds

DALLAS (AP)—The only property Mr. and Mrs. George Spencer had to divide when they were divorced Wednesday was a pair of love birds.

Judge Dallas A. Blankenship awarded the male bird to Spencer and the female to Mrs. Spencer.

Mrs. Spencer pointed out that this is the mating season and to separate the birds would be a cruel injustice.

The judge amended his order to provide that "reasonable visitation periods are granted for the male bird to visit the female bird during the mating season."

Vote Is Sought On Fremont Tax

FREMONT (AP) — Petitions with 735 names were filed with the Sandusky County auditor yesterday calling for a referendum Nov. 6 on a proposed 1 per cent city income tax here.

The tax, designed to raise about $275,000 annually, was to have been effective July 1. Now, unless the auditor finds the petitions lacking sufficient valid signatures, the city income tax is dead for 1956. Mayor John M. Collins, predicted a 50 per cent cut in police, fire and park personnel next monh.

Kefauver Insists No Veep Nomination In His Plans

ORRVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver said here Wednesday he wanted it "made clear that I'm not running for vice president under any circumstances."

Talk of the Tennessean in the second-string spot has increased in recent weeks. In a news conference here he emphasized he's not interested in anything but the nomination to head the Democratic national ticket next November.

Kefauver came into Ohio six weeks after the state primary which he did not enter because, he told newsmen, he "made it a policy not to run in favorite-son states" and because his work in the Senate prevented him from making an Ohio campaign.

At the invitation of the Wayne County Young Democrats, he spoke Wednesday night to an audience of about 325 in the high school auditorium here.

In the audience were several Democratic candidates, including William R. Thom of Canton, former congressman who won election as an anti-Lausche delegate to the national convention from the 16th District.

Following his arrival at the Akron-Canton Airport Wednesday, Kefauver visited Wooster, Massillon, Canton, New Philadelphia and Dover and stayed overnight in Canton following his speech here.

Asked if it were a purpose of his trip to influence Ohio delegates, Kefauver said some of the delegates pledged to "favorite son" Lausche were "my good friends whom I have known before." Thom, he declared, also was his "good friend, but not the kind of man you try to convert."

Four years ago, without organization support, Kefauver won half the Ohio delegates to the Democratic convention. This year all but Thom and three Cleveland delegates out of the state's 58 are Lausche-pledged.

In his address, Kefauver assailed the present administration for what he contended was—

Its "creeping inflation" in which "the real victims are those people with fixed incomes."

Its federal give-away program.

Neighborhood Pals Act As Pallbearers

CLEVELAND (AP) — Eight-year-old Johnny Dale Mower, who was found drowned in Lake Erie last weekend, was buried yesterday in Lake View Cemetery.

Eight of his neighborhood pals were his pallbearers.

Johnny disappeared June 13 after he went out to play in a park near his home. He was the object of a widesread search by police and volunteers until his body was found. His death was ruled accidental.

Zoo Keepers Fail To Save Stray Cat

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—A stray cat entered the cage of a female chimpanzee at the zoo here Wednesday night and three zoo keepers tried vainly for nearly half an hour to save the life of the uninvited guest.

The chimp came out of the shelter at the rear of the cage and caught the cat by the tail. She jumped up to her trapeze and swung back and forth swinging the cat by the tail.

The zoo attendants coupled a hose and played a stream of water on the chimp trying to force her to drop the screaming cat.

The little drama ended when the chimp, piping mad and dripping wet tired of the game and swinging the cat above her head like a lariat, crashed the feline against the bars of the cage, killing it.

DuPont Eyes Site In Fayette County

WASHINGTON C. H. (AP) — The duPont Co. of Wilmington, Del., said yesterday it was closing an option on a 67-acre site on U. S. 35 near here for construction of a paint factory.

Approximately 100 persons will be employed at the plant, the company said.

WASTING THEIR BREATH

WHEN THE Eisenhower administration took over in 1953, the federal spending rate was approximately $72 billion a year. This was cut back $8 or $10 billion to stop the inflationary effect of government spending. Minor tax cuts were one result of this move.

It is reported that the federal government is again spending at the rate of $72 billion annually. In another year this will move up to $74 billion, and doubtless will go considerably higher as the full effects of road, school, housing, rivers, farm, welfare and other federal aid programs are felt.

This higher spending policy reflects in part neglect of necessary facilities during and after the war. Prominent in it also is the fixed federal habit of throwing gobs of money into any domestic weak spot. When trouble impends, the affected groups yell for Uncle Pappy to do something and the federal government speeds to the rescue.

It is clear that the country is not to have conservative fiscal policies, with lower taxes and a wearing down of the national debt. Neither party has nominated a presidential candidate committed to such a program for many years, for the reason that both parties judge the mood of the people to favor spending. After feeling his way along the economy course, President Eisenhower apparently has rejected it.

Some day public sentiment may favor economy, and then there will be political response. Until then the economy advocates might as well save their breath.

CORE AREA DECLINE

IT IS NOT of considerable moment that the Census Bureau finds the metropolitan areas of Washington, D. C.; Houston, Texas; Milwaukee, Wis. and St. Louis, Mo., are leading the average population rise in the United States by a wide margin. The general population gain for the nation as a whole since 1950 is 10.3 percent. But these cities' gains have been double or triple that pace.

What is of interest to all growing cities, is that these four have experienced a much slower rate of gain, or an actual loss, in population in the central or core area. Within the municipal limits of St. Louis itself there was a loss of 16,000. But the suburban areas grew so rapidly that Greater St. Louis had an increase of 27.5 percent.

In the presence of this testimony, there is no longer doubt that suburban population is running away with downtown population. Hence the outlying shopping centers which are reducing the trips of many people downtown to a bare minimum.

This is not to sing the swan song of the core area. They will continue and thrive, particularly as crowd-drawing attractions are added. But cities are getting so big that the pull of convenience is toward the periphery. Both merchants and customers will have to learn to live with it.

George E. Sokolsky's

These Days

The celebration in Egypt over driving the British out of the management of the Suez Canal means more than taking over the ditch that played such a role in the Victorian British Empire. Realistically, it means that Soviet Russia, Nasser's ally and underwriter, has developed a big role in the Middle East and that the system of Air Bases which the United States has erected in North Africa may well be liquidated by political action.

The key American base, the Wheelus Air Base, is in Libya which has been receiving a subsidy of approximately $17,000,000 a year from the United States and Great Britain.

Egypt and Saudi Arabia are offering Libya the same amount of money if Libya will join them and drop the United States and Great Britain. Saudi Arabia gets its funds from American oil companies which have developed the natural resources of that otherwise barren land. It would not at all be surprising if some day, Saudi Arabia drives out the American oil companies and sells the product to Soviet Russia. It might prove to be a profitable deal to Saudi Arabia for a while.

Will we protect American property and national interests by armed force? Probably not, under the theory that if a nation wants to be neutral, it ought to be permitted to be neutral because the United States was neutral in the early years of its history. This will go down in American history as the Eisenhower Doctrine alongside the Monroe Doctrine and the John Hay Doctrine of the Open Door.

The inadequacy of the Eisenhower Doctrine on Neutrality is that it does not explain to any country, for instance to Libya or to France or Italy, why all nations should not be neutral, bargaining as they can, with anyone that will bargain with them.

Or better still, why should not Libya take $17,000,000 from the United States, take whatever it can get from Egypt and Saudi Arabia and from anyone else that is handing out money as foreign aid while their own people suffer privations?

Why not grab whatever is lying around while the grabbing is possible? Maybe before long, some country will get wise to the futility of handing out of money "with no strings attached," and the weak and backward countries will grow weaker and more backward. What Libya asks for is an additional $67,000,000 for a six-year plan. Of course, nobody knows how much of this money will ever go down to the people.

It would be interesting to read a verificatiable account of what Ibn Saud has done with the hundreds of millions which have come to him, apart from proliferating harems. How much of this great wealth has worked its way to the Arab peoples?

The real measure of the value of foreign aid, certainly from this country, is not what goes to governments but what goes to the people in the form of higher standards of living, more education, better facilities for improving health, etc.

SYNOPSIS

Priscilla Paige, who is bored with her job in a New York office and unmarried, grasps at an opportunity to escape her humdrum existence when she is notified of an unexpected bequest from a great-aunt, and naturally her imagination is stirred by what follows. Her older, wiser friend, Rita Lambert, accompanies Priscilla on the auto trip to Apalachicola, Fla., to see the principal item in the bequest—an abandoned old mansion called Lookout House. The girls learn that the house is "haunted" and has a secret passage. The two decide to remain to appear to be just tourists until they know more about why three different men have taken a curious interest in the place and in them. The men are Bill Duval, who says he is a writer; Red Gallagher, a fisherman, and Luis Alvarez, a wealthy yachtsman.

In her first visit to the house, Rita finds $500 in brand-new bills on the floor, and Todd, the attorney for the estate, reveals that Alvarez is interested in buying the house.

The local belle, Peggy Pomeroy, is naturally annoyed that Priscilla has attracted the attention of her two best beaux, Pete Craig and Dick Devereaux.

CHAPTER 11

"DICK MADE a professional call to the girls last night," said Pete. "The younger one—her name's Priscilla Paige—ate too much shrimp or the wrong kind of shrimp or something. Gave her a tummy-ache. All the drugstores were closed and somebody told them about Dr. Devereaux."

"Did the treatment include meeting them at the drugstore this morning?" Peggy's tone was a little displeased.

"I didn't say he met them. I said he was talking to them—in fact, he was buying them a Coke. Anything wrong with that?"

"No-o, but a little unusual, don't you think? If you think she's so attractive, why didn't you barge in and get an introduction?"

Pete smiled and slid farther down in his chair. "I did. I had a Coke with them."

"Heavens above! Why didn't you say so in the first place? What does she look like?"

"Priscilla? I've just told you. Like Lauren Bacall. The other one is darkish, black hair, dark eyes. Her name is Rita Lambert. She writes or something."

"Well, I haven't seen them and I haven't any interest in them. Mother said two ladies had rented the Glass cottage for a short while. . . . Was she really sick last night?"

"Priscilla? Of course. Why else would she have called the doctor?"

Peggy swung her feet to the floor and sat up. "If I were in a strange town and was bored, and I knew there was a young, attractive doctor around, I might have indigestion or some other minor ailment."

Pete looked at her speculatively. "You might, at that. But in Priscilla's case, I think the indigestion was genuine. Look, Peggy. Instead of showing your claws, it would be a nice gesture if you'd call on those girls."

Peggy said, "I may do that very thing. If I'm going to have competition, I'd like to look her over. And I'll ask Dick about them—whether they're the kind one should call on."

"Give me a little time and I'll let you know." Pete got up. "I'm going to ask Priscilla for a date."

"Sometimes, Pete, I dislike you intensely. I think you do things just to aggravate me."

"Do you ever do anything to aggravate me?" Pete demanded, looking at her, not smiling. "And I won't ask her for a date to aggravate you. I'll do it because I want a date with her. And I'll tell you something else: don't be surprised if Dick does the same. He may have asked her for a date tonight. How about riding around with me? We may run into them."

Peggy was on the verge of saying no. But she had talked to Dick once today and he hadn't said anything about seeing her tonight. Pete would probably do just as he had said, manage somehow to wangle a date with the newcomer. And perhaps it might be well in the beginning to let that girl know she had priority on Pete. So she said she would be glad to see him tonight, and as her folks were dining out, he could take her over to Maud's for dinner.

After Pete had gone, she continued to lie there in the hammock. She wished there were a half-dozen eligible men here, so that she could make Pete and Dick jealous. Did she dare date Luis Alvarez? He was attractive and he had a beautiful boat. Of course, he was too old and Mama would probably have a fit if she did. Then there was Bill Duval. He and Dick had fished together, and Dick said he was writing a book, or collecting material for a book or something. He rode around a lot in that red Buick, must do all his writing at night. Oh well . . . Peggy stretched out in the hammock and was almost immediately asleep.

• • •

"Got a minute, Doctor?"

Involuntarily the young doctor's eyes went to his wrist. Then he said pleasantly, "Sure, I can take it, anyway. What's on your mind?"

"Women." A smile played over Bill's face. He opened the car door and got in.

The doctor laughed. "I thought perhaps that was it. The girl in the red slacks? I saw you watching us there in the drugstore. Why didn't you barge in, as Pete did, and get an introduction? I started to call you and just about that time you walked away."

"Who are they? And where did you meet them?"

Dr. Devereaux smiled. "The younger one's name is Priscilla Paige, the other one is Rita Lambert. They're from New York. Like you, Miss Lambert is a writer. I think they are here to get material for a book. Miss Paige ate too much shrimp last night and I was called."

"I see," Bill said. "A patient, an attractive one, calls the doctor at night. The doctor meets her next morning for a Coke."

Dick laughed.

"The older one looks Spanish," said Bill. "I understand her name is Zerita. That's Spanish, isn't it?"

"I don't know about the name, but I'm sure Rita isn't. That accent is just plain New Yorkese. The younger one, Priscilla, told me her mother's people were Southern."

"If they're from New York, why does their car have a Connecticut license tag?"

"Has it? I didn't notice. Anyway, I'm sure they said they were both from New York. Why do you ask, Bill?"

"Put it down to curiosity. One doesn't see many strangers who linger here for no apparent reason."

"Now that you mention it, the curiosity seems to be mutual. When you walked by, Miss Lambert asked who you were."

"She did?" Bill looked up from the cigaret he was lighting.

"Priscilla said something about having been in Apalachicola a couple of days and that they had seen you everywhere, wondered if you were following them."

Bill extinguished his match. "Why should they think they are being followed?"

"Because they see you everywhere they go. I assured them you were quite respectable, that you were a writer collecting material for a book. Miss Lambert looked as skeptical as you did when I told you she was a writer."

"I wonder," Bill said enigmatically. "Maybe it's just another coincidence. Two Spanish people here at the same time. You haven't seen the girls talking to Alvarez, have you?"

Yesterday's Answer

Bennett Cerf's Try, Stop Me

When two famous veterans of the theatre were very, very much younger than they are today— also much less careful of what and how much they imbibed—they toured together in a popular show. Everybody else connected with that tour who still lives to tell the tale is still awestruck by some of the troubles and crazy mishaps that befell the troupe.

One evening neither star could remember the lines at all, and about the only voice the audience heard was that of the frantic prompter offstage. For one poignant scene he had to repeat a speech six times The lady star finally told him imperiously, while the audience watched spell-bound, "We hear you perfectly, young man. But you have neglected to tell us whose lines these are!"

Judge John Murphy's 7-year-old daughter, after a day in court to see her dad in action, reported to her class, "Pop made a beautiful speech to twelve men in a box of some kind, and when he was finished they marched those twelve men into a dark room to be developed."

Doctor Needs Your Help

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

ARE you a good patient? Do you help your doctor to help you?

Just as physicians have obligations to their patients, so do patients have obligations to their physicians. Close cooperation between them means better care for the patient and an easier job for the doctor.

Eight Rules

So, to aid all concerned, here are eight fundamental rules which will help you become a better patient:

1. See your physician regularly for periodic checkups.
2. Either keep your appointment or telephone the doctor's office to cancel it if you can't make it.
3. Don't expect special favors in the physician's waiting room. Don't assume that you should be taken ahead of prior commitments on the appointment book.
4. Tell your doctor even "unpleasant" facts about yourself if they may help him in his diagnosis.
5. Don't try to diagnose your own ailments or prescribe your own treatment.

Doctor's Orders

6. Follow your doctor's orders. After all, you're paying for his advice.
7. Discuss the question of medical and surgical fees openly and honestly and expect an honest and straightforward answer.
8. Your doctor probably is a very busy man these days. Don't tire him with a tedious detailed discussion of matters which do not pertain to your visit.

Physician's Job

Usually, it's up to the physician to acquaint his patients with these suggestions. People, it seems, just don't come by them naturally.

If a doctor can take a little time to discuss the reasons behind these fundamentals, he'll probably have good, loyal and appreciative patients. Patients, too, will then have a better understanding of the doctor.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

Mrs. S. J.: How may books be disinfected after having been handled by a person with a contagious disease?

Answer: Very little attention is paid to books as a possible spread of disease. Usually, it is best to air for at least 12 hours everything in a room in which there has been a case of contagious disease. All articles should be exposed to the sunlight as much as possible.

However, if the infection is due to smallpox the books and other articles should be destroyed.

Adults Feel Immature Now

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Do you feel hopelessly immature in the presence of the younger generation?

Many older people do today, particularly parents. They feel their children are outgrowing them too fast.

One reason is the widespread custom of earlier weddings. Marriage at 18 and 19 is becoming commonplace.

"But the worst thing is they start going steady so young," one father moaned. "Girls only 12 years old seem to think they should have a steady boy friend. And if you raise a holler they say you're old-fashioned. They say all their girl friends the same age are starting to go steady, so why can't they?"

Kids that age, of course, are only aping the high school teenagers, among whom the custom of "going steady" is now a nationwide problem.

Some educators see it as only a passing fad, such as the wearing of denim pants or pony tail hair-dos. Others think it is dangerous and should be discouraged as much as possible.

Parents are as mixed up as the educators. Fathers generally are opposed to daughters in their tender mid-teens having a single beau. They have to restrain an urge to boot the young scalawag down the front steps everytime he whistles at the front door, or walks in without knocking.

Mothers are more tolerant.

"I'd rather have my daughter go steady with a boy who I knew was a good boy," said one, "than to date half a dozen, all of whom I couldn't be sure of."

The high school proms, as remembered by most middle-aged folk, are now a thing of the past.

"There is hardly any cutting-in any more," a mother said. "The couples that are going steady dance with each other all evening. There isn't much changing of partners."

That, of course, makes it pretty tough on the kids who don't go steady. They feel as out of place as an old maid at a party where everybody else is married.

Somehow this custom of teenagers going steady doesn't seem as alarming as it does depressing. Adolescence is a time when lifelong emotions are excited, but is it the time when they should be set in an adult pattern?

Youth is the age for change, experimentation and flirtation. Love should come and go like sunshine and cloud, not be fixed in a permanent pattern at a time when one is too young even to know what love means.

A realist might say: Oh, well, it really doesn't make much difference. Grownups may think they are only playing at love, but the hearts of teenagers are turbulent things. The ending of the game (and in most cases it will end, of course) can be a terrible emotional ordeal for either or both parties.

Why anyway, do so many kids who are still in the bicycle and algebra stage event want to go steady? That is the disturbing thing. They didn't want to a generation ago.

Is it that since the world is moving so fast, so blindly fast, they sense the need of some deeper kind of security than their homes or parents can give them? Do they feel a desperate necessity to grow up quickly in a world with so clouded a future?

Whatever the reason, it is a cosmic pity that in our civilization it is the old who try to stay young and the young who try to act old.

Luscious red raspberries combined with tender-thin flakes of coconut swirled through rich vanilla ice cream . . . there's a recipe destined to become a Summer favorite! Why? Two reasons: One, it's DELICIOUS to eat . . . two, it's EASY to make.

"Do you know any really good — really easy recipes?" That's a question heard more and more often these busy days . . . and the nice part of the answer is heard that "The best things to eat are becoming the easiest to make"! One reason is that everybody (that includes manufacturers of foods) is meeting the current trend in "lessening work for homemakers". The result is what one would expect . . . excellent recipes — like this!

Coconut-Raspberry Swirl
1/2 cup tender-thin flaked coconut
1 cup sweetened red raspberries, pureed
1 quart vanilla ice cream, softened

Combine coconut and raspberries. Place spoonfuls of ice cream and coconut-raspberry mixture alternately in freezing tray of refrigerator. With knife or spatula, swirl through both mixtures in zigzag course. Set control for coldest freezing temperature. Freeze until firm. Freezing time: 2 to 3 hours. Makes 6 servings.

Rev. Mitchell Gives Talk At Pickaway DAR Meeting

The highlight of the annual June luncheon meeting of the Pickaway Plains Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution was a talk entitled, "Flag," by the Rev. Donald Mitchell, pastor of Presbyterian Church.

Approximately 60 members and guests were in attendance for the meeting held in Presbyterian Church.

Following the luncheon the business was called to order by Regent, Miss Marie Hamilton. Mrs. R. Rae Bales repeated the quotation from the year book.

The Regent assisted by Mrs. Christian Schwarz, Chaplain, opened the meeting in ritualistic form.

Mrs. Charles Wright led the pledge of allegiance followed by the group singing the national anthem, accompanied by Mrs. Martin Cromley.

Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, program chairman, introduced the guest soloist, Mrs. Ralph Dunkle. Mrs. Dunkle sang "There Are Many Flags in Many Lands," "America, Mine Own," "The Riddle Song," "River Shanty" and "Thank God For a Garden."

Mrs. Johnson also introduced Barbara Renick and Rebecca Rocky, who were winners in the fifth grade history contest sponsored by the local Chapter. Both essays entitled, "The Moundbuilders" and "Old Circleville, Before the Circle Was Squared," were read at the session.

The Rev. Mr. Mitchell in presenting his speech said that the flag in itself is a beautiful flash of colors and is of slight value even as a piece of merchandise to people, who are not willing to daily business in a way that will think, act and carry on their bless the Republic for which it stands. It is a symbol of all that makes America great.

The Rev. Mr. Mitchell continued to say that righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people. Blessed is a nation whose God is the Lord, and the people whom He has chosen for His own inheritance.

To conclude his talk the Rev. Mr. Mitchell repeated the "America's Gospel."

Miss Hamilton announced that the national theme for the next year is "Cherish and Maintain American Freedom" and the Ohio theme if "Looking Ahead."

It was announced that members could renew their subscriptions to the National DAR magazine and DAR News by contacting Miss Florence Dunton, chairman.

Mrs. Clarence McAbee gave a report on boxes sent by the Chapter and Mrs. Forest Croman read two recommendations from the Board.

Mrs. Charles May assisted the hostess committee, which included:

Mrs. Dorothy R. Gerhardt, Miss Florence Hoffman, Mrs. Rolland Featheringham, Miss Ruth Montelius, Mrs. W. R. Seeds, Mrs. J. D. Hansen, Mrs. Lee Luellen, Mrs. Paul Mattheas, Miss Eliza Plum, Mrs. Jay Hay, Mrs. George Gardner and Mrs. Henry Lewis.

Refrigerator Pies Family Favorite

One way to salute the summer months is to treat the family to refreshing refrigerator pies refreshing not only to taste but to make since they require no baking.

For a beautiful banana pie to take care of six servings, soften envelope plain gelatin in ¼ cup cold water.

Take 1-3 of 2-3 cup sugar and two egg yolks. Stir in one cup cold milk. Cook over low heat until mixture coats a metal spoon, stirring constantly. Stir in softened gelatin.

Meanwhile, beat two egg whites until they stand in soft peaks. Gradually beat in remaining 1-3 cup sugar and fold into custard.

Fold in 1 cup sliced bananas, teaspoon pure vanilla extract, and ½ cup heavy cream, whipped. Turn into a 9½ inch pie plate, lined with vanilla wafers (takes about 1½ boxes two ounces each, vanilla wafers). Chill until ready to serve.

To serve six with Vanilla Charlotte Russe Pie, soften teaspoon unflavored gelatin in ¼ cup cold water.

Add ½ cup hot milk, 1-3 cup sifted confectioners' sugar and 1-16 teaspoon salt. Mix well, then chill until mixture begins to thicken.

Stir in one cup drained, crushed pineapple.

Beat two egg whites until they stand in soft peaks. Beat in teaspoon granulated sugar and fold into gelatin mixture.

Then, fold in teaspoon vanilla extract and one cup heavy cream, whipped. Turn into 9½ inch pie plate lined with three ounce package lady fingers. Chill until firm.

Summer Coiffure Should Be Simple

Hot, hotter, hottest! These are the three words to describe the Summer days ahead.

Are you ready for them, with a hairdo that is cool and easy on the upkeep?

It should be a simple coiffure. An away-from-the-face style is a good bet; even better if hair at back is off the neck. Too much hair curling around face and neck will make you look and feel warm and uncomfortable.

Next, you will want to skip those tedious bedtime settings. Who wants to set pin curls when the mercury is zoomed up to the 90's? The way to avoid this, of course, is to give yourself a permanent wave in the privacy of your home and in the coolest possible way.

Choose your time. You can wait until there is a breezy break in the weather. On a hot day, you will find that the cool, cool, cool of the morning is best for a waving session. Pick the most comfortable place you can think of, breezeway, porch, sun-shaded kitchen or garden, cool basement, even the bathtub if that is where you will be happiest in hot weather.

Then, select your waving kit.

If time is of the essence, you will probably prefer a separate neutralizer permanent because the over-all time is shorter. If it is just a light end curl, try a tip-curl kit. It is fast, too, comes in both separate and self-neutralizing types.

The self-neutralizing kits are ideal for homemakers. They are for those who do not mind spending a longer time drying with their hair in curlers.

If you are handy making pin-curls, then a pin-curl permanent is your answer. This type usually needs more frequent renewing than the kind you roll up on curlers, but its speed and simplicity make it worth while.

Personals

The Goff-Lemley reunion will be held Sunday at Gold Cliff Park. Cold drinks will be furnished with the basket dinner.

Mrs. Remus Hartsock and son Arthur of Stoutsville Route 1, Mrs. Wayne DeLong of near Kingston and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krout of Dayton attended a recital held in the Art Gallery of Columbus, in which Patty Hartsock participated.

Members of the Wesley-Wed Class of First Methodist Church will hold a family picnic at 6:30 p. m. June 27 at Ted Lewis Park. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fisher will be in charge of the entertainment to follow the picnic.

Washington Grange will meet at 8 p. m. Friday in the township school.

June is Dairy Month. It is also homegorwn strawberry time in Ohio. This is a very friendly "natural" coincidence, as strawberries usually demand an accompaniment of milk or a milk product.

The recent cool damp weather will probably result in a smaller strawberry crop in Ohio than was anticipated.

Since strawberries are popular 'round the clock and the year 'round, we should all go shopping for the present and future while the quality is at its best.

The freezing method of preservation is a great asset for future ways and means!

If one should be wondering whether the "budget" prefers fresh frozen or canned berries, the following statistics from Consumer Marketing Specialists at Ohio State University can serve as a guide:

* * *

One quart of good quality fresh strawberries will make five half-cup servings. A one-pound, four-ounce can contains the same number of servings. A 10-ounce package of frozen berries will make about half that number.

Figuring the comparative cost of the different forms is simple. Since a quart of fresh berries and a one-pound, four-ounce can provide the same number of servings, the cost per serving is the same when the price of a quart of fresh berries is the same as that of such a can. On the other hand, since a 10-ounce package of frozen strawberries takes only half the number of servings as either of the packages, the cost per serving of frozen berries will be the same as that of fresh berries when a 10-ounce frozen package sells for half the price of a quart of fresh strawberries.

The frozen berries are already prepared and sweetened. If the homemaker figures the value of her time, or dislikes the job of cleaning and preparing fresh berries, she might prefer the frozen package, even at a relatively higher price per serving.

Size is not a good indication of quality. Flavor depends on variety and not size. Large berries may be preferred if they are to be served whole. It is best if they get to the consumer—with their caps on!

Strawberries are a fragile, delicate fruit. Handle carefully and as little as possible. Store in a refrigerator with wax paper covering. Just before serving, wash quickly and gently in cold water—do not let them stand in the water because this will cause a loss of flavor and color. Remove the caps and serve.

An excellent source of vitamin C is the strawberry. This fruit also contains vitamin A, calcium, and iron. They are low in calories, providing only about 55 in a cup of the berries.

With the increase in appetites (youthful as well as adult) for cooling beverages during the increasingly warmer weather, milk drinks offer a variety of healthful thirst quenchers. If every person in the United States drank just two more ounces of milk every day, there would be a shortage instead of a surplus.

To increase the use of milk, the United States Department of Agriculture suggests setting up a milk bar or milk shake center in the hom. A variety of different fruit flavorings and juices—such as strawberries — and other aids should be readily available.

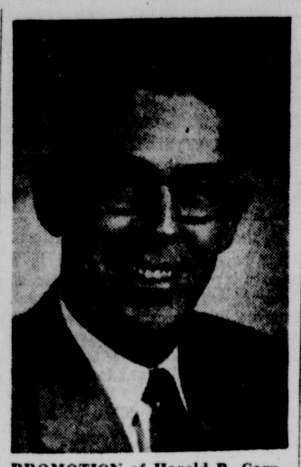
Barbecue parties are currently popular. There are plenty of broilers and fryers available. Young chickens, weighing 1¾ to 3 lb., ready to cook, are a good size for barbecuing. Detailed barbecuing information can be obtained by writing to Emil Malinovsky, Extension Poultryman, Poultry Building, Ohio State University, Columbus 10, Ohio.

Dope On Lawyers Learned In Movie

LANCASTER, Ky. (AP) — Two boys, ages 9 and 10, stopped at the office door of City Judge Edward R. Roark.

"A-t-t-o-r-n-e-y, what's that?" one asked.

"Aw," replied the other, "that's attorney, same as lawyer in cowboy pictures."



PROMOTION of Harold B. Cornwell of Athens to district special representative for the Ohio Fuel Gas Company, was announced today by Frank W. Phillips, Athens district manager for Ohio Fuel. Cornwell, 45, above, has been district business promotion manager since 1953. He is succeeded in that position by Bernard H. Kellogg of Fremont, who previously served as a gas adviser for Ohio Fuel in the Fremont district. As special representative, Cornwell will assist Phillips in the supervision of district operations.

Du Pont Planning WCH Paint Plant

Exercising of an option taken last January on a 67-acre site near Washington, C. H. was announced today by the DuPont Company.

The land is being purchased with a view to eventual construction of a paint plant employing about 100 people. In making this announcement, however, the company emphasized that no construction project has been authorized, so that these plans must still be considered tentative.

The site is located in a general farming area about 3½ miles northwest of Washington C. H., at the junction of U. S. Highway 35 and the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad. The property has a 3,300-foot frontage on Highway 35, is bounded on the north by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, and on the east by Bush Road.

The property is owned by Kathryn M. Fults, Jane Campbell, Harry H. Campbell, Charles M. Fults and Dorothy J. Fults. The owners are being formally notified now that the company is exercising the option.

It probably will take about a month to wind up the details of the transaction and make the actual purchase.

New Idle Payment Claims Increase

COLUMBUS (AP)—New claimants for unemployment insurance jumped to 8,790 for the week ended June 19 compared with 7,998 the previous week, the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation reports.

The estimate compared with the June 1955 average of 6,203.

Continuing claims for the week ended June 16 totaled 48,554 compared with 48,749 the previous week. The average of continuing claims in June 1955 was 39,106.

WASHINGTON (AP)—World Communists will now follow a line unheard of in Stalin's day: They'll criticize one another. This could wreck international communism if carried too far.

Until that day comes the criticism can be taken with a grain of salt. It is simply following the program outlined by Commnist party boss Nikita Khruhchev in his speech revealing the crimes of Stalin.

The purpose is simple: A Communist party in a nonCommunist country may gain more mass support by appearing to operate as a nationalist party instead of, as in Stalin's day, part of a Russian conspiracy.

Since Stalin never let them open their mouths, the problem for the Red leaders everywhere now is how to criticize one another without causing splits or damage.

This was clearly explained—but in Communist doubletalk—by the American Communist party leadership to its Central Committee two months ago. That was two months after Khrushchev made his speech.

That some self-criticism is the new line for Communist parties everywhere was made plain Wednesday in the declaration signed in Moscow by Khrushchev and Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia.

Agreeing to cooperate, they said:

"The two sides have agreed that the foregoing cooperation should be based on complete freedom of will and equality, on friendly criticism and on comradely character of exchange of views on disputes between their parties."

Given some years in the practice of criticism, it is possible that Communist parties will develop internal antagonisms and break off into sects and factions.

If that happens, then all else that President Truman did to try to stop communism may seem insignificant beside his simple decision to give help to Tito when Tito broke away from subservience to Stalin.

Stalin had maintained absolute control of Communist parties everywhere until 1948 when Tito shook loose.

Under Khrushchev set out, shortly after Stalin's death, to win Tito back as a friend if not as a servant. And he succeeded. But in making concessions to Tito, he showed other Red leaders how badly Russia wanted them not to bolt.

With this new softer approach, it is natural Khrushchev would be willing for other Communists outside Russia to raise some questions about the Kremlin from time to time, provided they didn't go too far.

Korea is known to Koreans by the name Chosen, which means "Morning Calm or "Morning Peace."

New Barn-Raising Job Faces Amish

MOUNT VERNON (AP) —Among the Amish, when a man's barn burns everyone pitches in to rebuild it.

The barn of Joni Yoder, 10 miles northwest of Mount Vernon, burned last August. True to tradition, his neighbors helped him build a new one.

Tuesday, the second coat of paint not yet dry, the new barn burned. Yoder estimated the loss at $17,000. It was believed overloaded wiring was to blame.

The Amish now have a new barn-raising facing them.

Savings Accounts Show Increase

COLUMBUS (AP) — Savings accounts in Ohio savings and loan firms will set records in the first half of 1956.

Don L. Tobin, executive secretary of the Ohio Savings and Loan League, said reports for the first five months of the year indicate:

A 41 per cent growth, a 24 per cent increase in additions to accounts, an 8 per cent increase in the number of accounts and a reduction of 4 per cent in the ratio of withdrawals in comparison with the first half of 1955.

Ohio's City-County Names Can Be Rather Confusing

By ART PARKS

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—This being the vacation season, it becomes a civic duty to point out to newly adopted Ohioans—and some old-timers—the pitfall in jumping to the hasty conclusion that Ottawa is in Ottawa County.

Or that Shelby is in Shelby County or that Logan is in Logan County, Warren in Warren County or Washington Court House in Washington County.

Or, for that matter, that Hamilton is in Hamilton County.

Fair warning: Only 16 Ohio counties have within their borders towns of the same name. More than two-score Ohio cities and villages have names identical to counties in which they are not located.

Let's get back to Ottawa. If you go to the county on the shore of Lake Erie, you'll look high and low for the town that isn't there. You'll find Ottawa is the neat little county seat town of Putnam County about 75 miles southwest.

Shelby is in Richland County in north-central Ohio. Shelby County is in western Ohio.

Logan is the county seat of hilly and picturesque Hocking County. Logan County is hilly and beautiful too, but it's well over 100 miles from Logan. The latter is southeast, the former northwest.

Warren is in Trumbull County in the industrial northeast; Warren County is in the agricultural southwest.

Washington County has a court house in historic Marietta, but it isn't Washington Court House, which is the seat of Fayette County in the corn-hog region of southwestern Ohio.

Hamilton is right next door to Hamilton County, but it's in Butler County. Just about all you'll find in Hamilton County is Cincinnati and its sprawling suburbs.

You won't find Sandusky in Sandusky County, either. It's in Erie County, next door. Fremont is the Sandusky County seat.

Would you go to Franklin County to find Franklin? Of course not. Franklin is down in Warren County, near Cincinnati, and nearly 100 miles from Columbus and Franklin County.

Would you be in Marion County if you drove to Marion? You're wrong. You would. That's one of the 16 counties which harbor cities or villages of the same name.

To save further confusion, here are the others:

Ashland, Ashtabula, Athens, Belmont, Columbiana, Coshocton, Defiance, Delaware, Gallia, Jackson, Lawrence, Lorain, Medina, Paulding and Van Wert.

Now, if you've got the strength, here are some other cuties:

Crawford is in Wyandot and Scioto counties, not Crawford.

Auglaize is in Allen County.

Hocking is in Athen County.

Carroll is in Fairfeld County.

Clinton is in Summit County.

Clark is in Coshocton, Cuyahoga, Darke or Summit counties. Take your choice.

Fairfield is in Columbiana County.

Fayette is in Fulton County and Fulton is in Morrow or Belmont counties.

Hardin is in Shelby County; Harrison is in Hamilton, and Huron is in Erie.

Jefferson is in Ashtabula or Wayne counties.

You'll find Lucas in Richland County and Madison in Lake County. Mahoning is in Portage County and Meigs is in Morgan. Morgan, however, is in Logan or Pickaway counties. Morrow is in Warren County and Miami is in Hamilton.

Down in Butler County you'll find Monroe, but you won't find Montgomery near Dayton but in Hamilton, county, not city.

Noble is in Cuyahoga (part of Euclid) or in Summit County.

Perry turns up in Lake County and Portage in Wood County. Putnam is part of Zanesville in Muskingum County and Richland is in Vinton County.

You'll find Ross in Butler and Carroll counties and Summit is in Licking, Hocking, Richland and Ross counties.

Trumbull shows up on the map in Ashtabula County, Union is in Montgomery County, Vinton is in Gallia County and if you go to Wayne you'll be in Wood County.

That's all. Don't say we didn't warn you.

Ike To Get 60 Books On Western Lore

SANTA FE, N. M. (AP) — The Western Writers of America, a dedicated group whose members sometimes feel misunderstood, are preparing a getwell offering of their own books for their top fan, President Eisenhower.

An estimated 60 autographed books by authors, who include some of the country's best known Western writers, will be sent to the convalescing President along with their best wishes.

Bill Gulick of Walla Walla, Wash., president of the association, said:

"Of course, since it is an election year, we wanted no political implications. Since we were conventioning in Santa Fe, it seemed logical to ask some New Mexico figure to make the presentation to Mrs. Eisenhower. So we asked Sen. Clinton Anderson if he'd be willing. He answered that he would be delighted to see that the President gets the books."

The President reportedly has read Westerns for years.

Television Used In Steel Furnace

CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—Closed-circuit television system developed by the Radio Corp. of America is speeding and improving steel production at the Weirton (W. Va.) Steel Co. by permitting operators to "see inside furnaces."

Ralph A. Teare, manager of RCA industrial products, said that the system enables Weirton employes 150 feet away to see and control processing operations inside big reheating furnaces.

Teare said three cameras are involved, each placed at the side of a reheating furnace and connected to a monitor in the furnace's remote-control booth.

Canton Industry Awaits Vacation

CANTON (AP)—Thousands of Canton workers will be vacationing at the same time during the last few days of June and the first two weeks of July.

Six major industrial plants and many smaller ones will close.

Closed will be the Timken Roller Bearing Co., the Ford Motor Co. plant, Canton Drop Forging & Manufacturing Co., Industrial Forge & Steel, Inc.; Hercules Motors Corp.; Diebolt Safe & Lock Co. and many smaller plants.

Some firms always have closed around the same time but this is the first time that such a huge part of Canton's payroll will vacation at the same time.

Akron Baby Boy Drowns In Bathtub

AKRON (AP)—Daniel Rafferty, 7 months old, drowned in a bathtub at his home.

His mother, Mrs. Bernard Rafferty, said that when she turned away for a moment to use the telephone, the child went under.

Sokolsky's

How much of the money that the United States has paid out to any nation is used in this manner and how much goes to the coffers of the ruling families? Ibn Saud, for instance, has ample reason to be grateful to the United States, but he is not and the question might well be asked whether he believes that he owes us anything at all. And that question might be asked of all countries as long as our aid is not directly employed to benefit the people of a country and not only the rulers of it.

This has been an important problem since the days of UNRRA when we discarded the World War I and post-World War I relief experience and adopted a pattern which benefited governments. The discarding of all prior experience was characteristic of the 1940's which suffered from what might be called a Marco Polo complex; that is, each man became an original discoverer of what had already been discovered and fully explored.

But we are now in 1956 and it would seem that we should have earned something by experience and one thing we might have learned is that there is no value in giving our wealth away except on the basis of doing something to help the people of a country raise their standard of life and doing it with an American label.

Brazil To Get Aid

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP)—The United Nations will ship five million pounds of dried milk from this port to Brazil within the next few weeks. The milk, for needy children in Brazil, was purchased from U. S. Surplus stocks.

Too Poor To Go To College, HST Wins Laurels At Oxford

OXFORD, England (AP)—Harry S. Truman, who was too poor to go to college, has received an honorary degree from Oxford, one of the world's most distinguished universities.

Tears filled the eyes of the former U. S. President when Lord Halifax, chancellor of the university, conferred the degree of doctor of civil laws with this eulogy:

"Truest of allies, direct in your speech and in your writings, and ever a pattern of simple courage. . ."

Truman smiled, choked up, and then quickly whipped out a handkerchief and blew his nose.

"Never, never in my life," he whispered to a reporter, "did I ever think I'd be a Yank at Oxford."

He had explained to correspondents that his father's business reverses had prevented him from going to university after a boyhood on a Missouri farm.

Asked by a reporter how many honorary degrees he had received Truman replied:

"I must have a couple of dozen. But this is really a big one."

The auditorium of Oxford's ancient Sheldonian Theater rang with applause as the degree was conferred. It swelled in volume as Truman faced 94 crimson robed professors in the packed auditorium and flashed a broad smile.

"I've attended a lot of these convocations," said an old professor after the house became quiet. "I don't remember when there was ever so much applause. Mr. Truman is very popular in this country."

Mrs. Truman, sitting several rows behind her husband also wiped the tears out of her eyes.

There are some 30,000 Iowa farmers who don't have a milk cow on their farms.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Ada is 27 and I am 29 and we have been married eight years. We have three children—ages 3 years, 2 years, and 10 months — and a fourth is expected.

My wife is a wonderful person, as freehearted as a girl can be, and I love her very much. But right now she is peeved at me. The reason? Well, on Friday nights after work I stop downtown for a drink with the fellows (we can't afford bars so we buy a bottle and go to our building) and sometimes we play cards.

I never lose money to speak of, and never use house money or neglect my bills; and never get drunk. But I stay pretty late, and when I do Ada gets very cold to me. I believe a man is entitled to a night out; and a wife the same (with a limit on time).

Ada won't go anywhere if I ask her too; says it is too much trouble, taking the children, and I admit it is, on subways, etc. But it is the only way we can go, as we live far out, in a low-rent area, far from people we know. It is pretty lonesome for us—though I go to work and see people every day—and a strain on Ada, who never gets away, nor has a minute to herself.

Ada is an extra special person, and when I have extra money, I always give her some, plus her regular money. But she always buys for the house, or the children or me, never for herself—always wants to help me, with bills, etc. Maybe I am not a good manager of money, and maybe not a good head of the house, but I do my best. .

S.Y.

DEAR S.Y.: It is my impression that you are a pretty nice fellow, but you have a bad conscience about Ada — and rightly so, it seems. The fact is, you aren't giving your best to her or the marriage. You aren't putting her happiness, or her welfare, or her companionship first, in your leisure time—which is the only time you have to share with the family, really.

That's why Ada freezes up, when you come in from a late night out with the fellows. She feels taken for granted, rated second-best, in comparison to a bottle, a deck of cards and some workaday cronies of yours. Is that intelligent treatment of a sensitive, warmhearted girl whom you really love?

Ada is soon to have her fourth child in four years. Moreover, she has been under mounting strain of loneliness (a morale-wrecker), and quasi-neglect on her husband's part, since she gave up her job to be a full-time wife. Thus gradually her emotional health is fraying out.

Ada's peeve at you, her tendency to retire and weep, and her attitude that social effort isn't worthwhile, are symptoms of emotional depression, which sneaks up on a burdened person who has been too long out of touch with meaningful friendship and true companionship. The housewife in this condition needs deep help, in the form of sympathetic understanding, and opportunities forcefully provided, for "taking a break" from isolated relentless routine.

Inasmuch as you need detailed leadership, in learning how to be a good husband in the special circumstances, I advise you to discuss your concern about Ada with a staff counsellor at the Family Service Agency in your area. It will be greatly to your credit to make this effort on her behalf.

M.H.

Corn Cultivator Strangles Girl, 3

MILLERSBURG (AP) — Three-year-old Alice Wilson strangled near here in a freak accident on a corn cultivator.

Alice and her sister, Judith, 7, had been playing on the cultivator in a shed at their farm home near Holmesville.

Suddenly the control bar by which the implement is operated from a tractor fell on her neck.

The sister, Judith, screamed, and the mother, Mrs. John T. Wilson, ran to the shed and lifted the bar. But Alice was dead on arrival at a hospital here.

Fall Kills Roofer

COLUMBUS (AP) — A 40-foot fall from a new addition being built at the Ternstedt Division plant of General Motors Corp. here yesterday killed Howard Taylor, 32, a roofer.

Braves Showing New Power As Haney Arrives

Milwaukee Now Leading League After Pulling Up From Fifth Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

What is it with Fred Haney? He takes over from Charlie Grimm, who resigned as Milwaukee manager under fire after losing 12 of 17 to tumble from first to fifth, and four days later the Braves are leading the National League again.

The Braves haven't lost since Haney, who never finished better than last in three other shots as a NL skipper, reluctantly took over in Brooklyn last Saturday night. They made it five in a row Wednesday night, completing a sweep of three from the plunging Pittsburgh Pirates 7-3 to move back into the top spot as last place Philadelphia junked Cincinnati's hold on the lead 3-2.

That caused yet another revision in the hectic NL standings, giving Milwaukee a 13-point edge over the Brooklyn Dodgers, who snapped a three-game losing streak with a 4-2 decision over St. Louis. The Cards hold fourth, 2 points back of the Redlegs, who in turn are 2 points behind the Brooks.

The Pirates, with five straight defeats, are fifth, but still very much in contention only one game behind the Braves.

New York's Giants reclaimed sixth place from Chicago, beating the Cubs 4-1.

In the American League, the New York Yankees made it seven-in-a-row as Mickey Mantle jolted his 26th and 27th home runs in a 4-1 verdict over Detroit. The Chicago White Sox held second, 5½ games behind, with a 12-8 decision over Baltimore. Cleveland ended a third place tie with Boston by topping the Red Sox 5-4 in 10 innings. Washington came from behind to beat Kansas City 5-4.

The Braves have been playing like most folks figured they could since Haney took charge. Question is, why? He's the same type of "nice guy" manager as was Grimm. In his 15 years as a pilot, he's had two pennant winners, both at Hollywood in the Pacific Coast League.

In the majors he was last in three tries with the Pirates, who released him after last season, and was no better than sixth in three years as field boss of the old St. Louis Browns in the AL.

Haney, 58, hasn't juggled the Braves' lineup or junked Grimm's pitching order, but he's had results. Gene Conley, for instance, pitched his first complete game since last July 10 for his second victory Wednesday night while Danny O'Connell and Bobby Thomson each batted in a pair of runs as the Braves scored five in the fifth to beat Vern Law.

Curt Simmons, winning his third choked off the homer-socking Redlegs on seven singles while the Phils, with just six hits, beat Art Flower on Stan Lopata's 12th home run.

The Dodgers scored three in the third with Carl Furillo lining a two-run double to beat the Cards and Wilmer Mizell, third lefty to start against the Brooks this season and first to start against them in Ebbets Field since last August 26. Roger Craig won his sixth, with Clem Labine relieving in the ninth. Second baseman Charley Neal turned Stan Musial's hard bases-loaded smash into a force out in the ninth to end it.

Chicago used five pitchers and the Orioles seven—two short of the AL's two-team record — and the White Sox iced it with four runs in the sixth. Chicago had 15 hits, Baltimore 14.

Washington put together an error, two walks and a sacrifice fly in the ninth to beat the A's who fell into the cellar with their 19th defeat in 25 home games this season.

Young Golfer Scores Well In Tourney

A local young golf enthusiast, Alex Antonio Jr., son of Pickaway County Club pro Alex Antonio, took part in the Ohio Junior Golf Tournament at York Wednesday.

The 11-year old golfer was a gallery favorite in the tourney, registering 210 for the 36 holes, and finished near the top in his age group standings.

This is the first golf tournament Alex has entered, according to the Country Club pro, and his present performance shows real promise.

However, young Antonio's interests are divided between baseball and golf, and reports indicate he may become a top-notch pitcher with a few more seasons of experience.

Satterfield Wins Decision In Bout

CHICAGO (AP)—A boxing "dud" who keeps exploding, Chicago's Bob Satterfield today drew a bead on a heavyweight match with equally unpredictable Tommy "Hurricane" Jackson.

Satterfield, a 3-1 underdog, last night pounded an end to young Johnny Summerlin's 12-bout winning streak with a unanimous decision here.

The 32-year-old Satterfield, outweighed by 11 pounds, nearly knocked Summerlin out of the ring in the third round with ponderous rights and then went on to win by a substantial margin.

Contact Sports Said Victim Of Undercover Attack

CHICAGO (AP) — The new chairman of the Illinois State Athletic Commission says an "undercover attack" appears to be directed against contact sports, such as boxing and football, in the U. S.

Frank Gilmer says:

"If Russia wanted to make sure the United States becomes a nation of 'softies,' the present trend in contact sports would indicate a good start in that direction.

"Eight colleges have dropped boxing recently. In pro boxing, a charge of crookedness persists. In college boxing, the complaint is that head injuries prevail.

"If boxing goes, what's next? Probably football. Then ice hockey, wrestling and what have you in the contact filed. Then what's left? Sports that will leave us softies."

Indians Win, But They Do It Hard Way

CLEVELAND (AP)—"It's good to win, but we sure did it the hard way," was Cleveland Manager Al Lopez' view of the 5-4 victory his Indians scored over Boston in 10 innings last night.

Lopez apparently had in mind particularly how three Tribe runners were caught off base.

In the fourth Vic Wertz was trapped off first by catcher Sammy White's throw with the bases loaded. Earlier in that same inning, pitcher Herb Score overran first base and was tagged out by the shortstop. Otherwise he could have scored on Al Smith's double. Then in the ninth Chico Carrasquel singled a runner to third, but went too far around first and was picked off.

Nevertheless, the Indians managed to get five runs on 11 hits, nine bases on balls and two hit batsmen. Sixteen Cleveland runners were stranded.

The game-winning blow was a single by Al Rosen with two out, which scored Bob Avila who had walked and gone to second on Gene Woodling's sacrifice.

An eighth-inning home run by Gene Woodling tied the game.

The Red Sox got only five hits, four off Herb Score who went six innings. Score was tagged for Jackie Jensen's eighth homer in the first inning.

Redlegs Sign Up College Standout

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Hank De Vincent, 22-year-old LaSalle College graduate, has signed a contract with the Cincinnati Redlegs.

DeVincent, an outfielder who averaged .403 in three years at LaSalle, signed for a bonus estimated at just under $4,000. He will be farmed out to one of the Redleg minor league affiliates.

Mantle Gets Chance To Show Power

DETROIT (AP)—One of the American League's best southpaws decided to let Mickey Mantle supply his own power, and the magnetic Yankee slugger responded and had power to burn.

Billy Hoeft, the Detroit Tigers' leading pitcher, fed the New York Yankee centerfielder two change-up pitches in last night's game in Briggs Stadium.

The 24-year-old Mantle, who has exhausted every superlative with his home run feats, churned both pitches far over the stadium fences to lead the pace-setting bombers to a 4-1 victory.

They were his 26th and 27th home runs and put him comfortably ahead of the pace set by Babe Ruth when he clubbed a record 60 home runs in 1927. Ruth did not hit No. 27 until July 8.

The heir-apparent to Ruth's title of the Sultan of Swat hit the home runs right handed. Only six of his 27 round trippers have been hit from that side of the plate.

Mantle, who had driven a fast ball out of the park two days earlier, went hitless in his first two trips. But both times he hit the ball solidly, grounding out to third and lining to centerfield. And both home run drives carried well over the 400-foot mark.

Ever Bowling Wife Irks Clevelander

CLEVELAND (AP) —Frank T. Doane, 43, has asked common pleas court to order his wife not to bowl more than one night a week.

His wife, Delphine A. Doane, 39, spends four nights weekly in the bowling alleys and is ridden by the "unreasonable obsession that she will one day be national woman's champion," said Doane.

He filed a cross-petition in answer to a divorce action initiated by Mrs. Doane a month ago.

Doane also complained his wife's bowling average is about 50 pins better than his and she won't let him bowl with her.

Ohio State To Host 244 Golfers In College Tourney

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The National Collegiate Golf Tournament, which was a stepping stone to golfing greatness for many of the current crop of professionals, will offer 244 players from 66 universities at the week-long 59th running of the fixture starting Sunday.

Ohio State University's 7,120-yard par 72 Scarlet Course will provide the test for the fourth time. The rolling, tree-infested layout has two lake holes. A creek meanders across five fairways and parallels another. The rough is high and thick.

Sunday, two 12-man teams, representing the East and West with the Mississippi as the dividing line, will battle in a best-ball fray.

Monday and Tuesday call for 18-hole qualifying rounds, sending 64 players into the match play bracket through Saturday. All matches will be at 18 holes except the grand finale, which is booked for 36.

Joe Campbell of Purdue, the 1955 victor at Knoxville, Tenn., will try to repeat—a feat only three men have accomplished since before the turn of the century, and none has performed since G. T. Dunlap Jr. of Princeton did it in 1930 and 1931.

During the qualifier, 36 universities will seek the four-man team title won last year by Louisiana State. Each school will be allowed six players in the team event, with the four low scores counting.

Thirty other colleges have entrants seeking the individual championship. Ohio State's 36-hole course is the only layout to entertain the collegiate tourney more than once since the NCAA took over management of the event in 1939. The USGA had operated it from 1897 until then. The tournament was never held west of the Mississippi until the NCAA took over.

Among the professional stars who gained their first big-time tourney experience in the collegiate event are Freddie Haas, Earl Stewart, Gardner Dickinson, Cary Middlecoff, Gene Littler, Mike Souchak, Art Wall, Bo Wininger, Lawson Little, Fred Wampler and Tom Nieporte.

Nieporte was the victor here in 1951, defeating his Ohio State teammate, Don Johnson, in the all-Ohio final. Both runners-up, Brownell and Johnson, were killed in plane crashes—Brownell during World War II and Johnson in a crash in Alaska.

The 36 univesities in the four-man team race include Ohio State, Michigan, Michigan State, Ohio University, Bowling Green and Ohio Wesleyan. Among those with one or more entrants in the individual race are Ashland, Youngstown, Ohio Northern and Western Reserve.

Throne Room Position Lost By Redlegs

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Cincinnati Redlegs moved on to Brooklyn today, evicted from the throne room of the National League standings by the tail-end Philadelphia Phillies.

The Redlegs skidded to third place here last night as the Phillies beat them, 3-2, with pitcher Curt Simmons and Handyman Stan Lopata, currently catching, doing most of the damage.

The costliest blow from the Cincinnati standpoint was Lopata's sixth-inning home run. It proved the margin of victory.

It was the seventh loss for right-hander Art Fowler. He's won four.

The Phillies got their first run in the third as Ted Kazanski drew a pass, went to second on an infield out and scored on Richie Ashburn's line drive single to center. They got run No. 2 in the fifth on Willie Jones' double and a single by Roy Smalley.

The Redlegs got one run in the fourth, when Frankie Robinson walked, went to third on Ed Bailey's single and scored on a sacrifice fly by Ray Jablonski.

In the seventh, Jablonski and Roy McMillan hit successive singles. Alex Grammas advanced them with a sacrifice bunt, and Johnny Temple's sacrifice fly scored Jablonski.

Idle today, the Redlegs open a four-game set in Brooklyn Friday.

Ohio Anglers Told To Stick With Lakes

COLUMBUS (AP)—If you are figuring on fishing this weekend, you'd better pick a lake or reservoir. The Ohio Division of Wildlife says the state's streams are muddy and roily and will stay that way through the weekend.

But fishing in some of the still-water spots is good to poor, the division pointed out in the following sectional survey:

Northwest: Streams high, muddy and roily due to heavy rains; fishing fair to poor in lakes, with best results at Oxbow in Defiance County, and East Harbor.

Southeast: Best fishing in following lakes: Atwood, Leesville, Burr Oak, Clendening, Tappan, and parts of Buckeye and Alma.

Central and South: Streams muddy and high, and no weekend improvement looked for; fishing fair in Rocky Fork Lake, Delaware Reservoir and Jackson Lake.

Southwest: Several lakes, including Kiser, Grant, Stonelick, and Indian in fair condition with several species being taken; streams roily and high.

Mac Vo Captures Hilliards Laurels

COLUMBUS (AP)—Mac Vo, driven by Bob Wells, provided the shortest time and the longest pay-off of the evening at Hilliards Raceway last night, edging Newsman in a photo finish in the sixth race.

Mac Vo turned the mile-long B Class pace in 2:09 and paid $40.60 to win. Newsman, pre-race favorite, paid $3.40 for second place.

Pastrano Booked To Test Holman

CHICAGO (AP)—A 10-round heavyweight "elimination" bout between Willie Pastrano of New Orleans and Johnny Holman of Chicago in Chicago Stadium July 18 has been announced by the International Boxing Club.

The winning may be a potential contender for the title vacated by Rocky Marciano by retirement.

Pastrano, ranked No. 7 in the heavyweight division, has lost only 4 bouts in 46 starts. Holman, No. 5 heavyweight, has a 31-12-1 record.

Airport To Get Moving Ramps

AKRON (AP) — The Akron-Canton Airport will have moving rubber ramps in the new $1½ million terminal building.

The board of control has approved the ramps in architects' plans. They will cost an estimated $19,500 each.

Four ramps will connect the first and second floors.

'Goofball' Control Asked By O'Neill

CLEVELAND (AP)—Atty. Gen. C. William O'Neill says the next Legislature should place controls on "goofballs," used by some truck drivers to ward off fatigue.

O'Neill said several fatalities have resulted from the unsupervised use of amphetamines, or so-called "goofballs."

He said amphetamine is ten times as potent as caffeine, and helps keep users awake.

"Exorbitant use may keep a person awake for as long a period as three nights, but when natural sleep inducing processes overcome the drug the individual goes out like a light," he explained.

Pinball Case Sent Back To Lower Court

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Second District Court of Appeals has sent a case involving pinball machines, back to the Franklin County Common Pleas Court for a rehearing.

In 1954 the Ohio Board of Liquor Control suspended the liquor license of G. R. Stickley and E. F. Peotter, doing business as Strick's Place, in Wauseon, Ohio. The suspension was for 15 days. The license holders had been cited for having a gambling device on the premises.

Stickley and Peotter appealed the suspension to the Franklin County Common Pleas Court, and the court reversed the liquor board.

The attorney general's office then appealed the decision to the Second District Court.

In a brief opinion given Tuesday, the appeals court said it had been holding up a decision pending action by the Ohio Supreme Court in another case. Just recently the high court ruled that pinball machines offering free plays for high scores were gambling devices banned by law.

The appeals court said today that in view of the high court's decision, it was reversing the Franklin County court decision and sending the case back to that court for a new hearing.

Pinball Revenue 'Sorely Needed'

EAST LIVERPOOL (AP) — The City of East Liverpool sorely needs the license revenue of pinball machines, says Safety Director William Heasley.

He told the city council that pinball machines which do not give free games were legal and should not be barred. The machines contribute $6,000 a year to the city's treasury.

2 Projects OKd

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House Public Works subcommittee has approved a $66,000 appropriation for Ohio River improvement at Gallipolis and $786,400 for Toledo harbor.

Nehru Starting Tour Of Nations

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru flew to Damascus today on the first lap of a month-long salted to take him to London, Washington and other captials.

Nehru planned a night stopover at the Syrian capital before pushing onto the London meeting of British commonwealth prime ministers.

The Indian leader is scheduled to visit in Washington with President Eisenhower July 7-10, but there has been speculation the President's illness may force a change in plans.

Nehru's itinerary also includes stops at Frankfurt, Hamburg and Bonn in Germany, and visits to Paris; Brioni, Yugoslavia; Cairo, and Beirut, Lebanon.

Scholarships Go To 460 Ohio Grads

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state department of education today granted scholarships to 460 Ohio high school graduates.

Harold J. Bowers, director of teacher training, said each scholarship worth $500, was made possible through a renewed appropriation made by the 101st General Assembly last year.

Scholarship recipients are free to attend any one of 25 Ohio colleges offering an approved program in elementary teaching, Bowers said. Ohio's six state colleges and universities and 19 private colleges offer this program, leading to the "cadet" elementary certificate.

Approximately 300 of an original group granted scholarships in 1953 completed the work and taught in Ohio this year, Bowers said.

The selection of scholarship applicants is made by a county committee. The applications then are reviewed by the state department.

If an applicant has graduated in the upper one-half of his class and is in need of financial aid to prepare for elementary teaching, final approval is granted, Bowers added.

Sufficient funds were appropriated for 500 scholarships, but 19 counties did not fill their quotas.

Compensation Fund Rates To Be Cut

COLUMBUS (AP) — The premium rate on payments by Ohio manufacturers into the Workmen's Compensation Fund will be reduced effective July 1.

The overall reduction of 7.7 per cent affects more than 150,000 employers, officials say. The fund provides industrial accident and occupational disease insurance protection for more than 3,200,000 workers in the state.

Red Leader Dons Evening Attire

MOSCOW (AP)—The new look in Moscow is getting newer.

Visiting President Tito of Yugoslavia threw a gay party for his Soviet hosts at the swank Soviet-Skaya hotel. All the big leaders of Soviet communism were there.

The subject of attention was A. I. Mikoyan, Armenian revolutionary of Bolshevik days. Mikoyan was wearing a white dinner jacket. It was the first time in the memory of the Moscow diplomatic corps that a Soviet leader turned up at a function in evening attire.
